Rutgers University is on NCAA probation until September 21, 2019 for NCAA violations that occurred in the football program from 2011-2015. These violations involved impermissible recruiting activities by a student host group, failure to follow the institutional drug testing policy, the arrangement of an impermissible academic benefit, impermissible recruiting conduct, unethical conduct by a former assistant coach, and failure to monitor aspects of the football program by the former head coach and university. The penalties include: public reprimand and censure; two years of probation through September 21, 2019; one-year show cause penalty (through September 21, 2018) for the former head coach and a former assistant coach; a three-game suspension and fine for the former head coach; a reduction of off-campus recruiting days and official visits during 2017-18; and a one-week prohibition on communicating with prospects during 2017-18.

THE BIRTHPLACE

November 6, 1869: Rutgers hosted Princeton in the first college football game making Rutgers "The Birthplace of College Football." Then referred to as the "Queensmen," the team ultimately prevailed over its in-state rival with a 6-4 victory.

Today, the team takes the Scarlet Walk in front of a cheering crowd of fans as they touch the base of the statue commemorating the first college football game. The Scarlet Walk has been a long-standing tradition that signals the start of game day.

THE BIG TEN

Nearly 120 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 300 team and nearly 1,700 individual NCAA Championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

LIFE BEYOND THE GAME

Rutgers football continues its established trend as one of the nation's top programs both on the field and in the classroom. The Scarlet Knights were ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR for eight-straight seasons, the only state institution to earn such distinction during that span.

Head coach Chris Ash instituted the "Life Beyond the Game" program that focuses on the personal and professional development of the Scarlet Knights.

"It's our obligation to help student-athletes in the life after football. When the cheering stops, the goal is to help give them an opportunity to go get employed. A lot of people want college athletes in the workforce, and what we need to do is make sure our college athletes get connected to the right people." – Chris Ash

COMPETITIVE EXCELLENCE

Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach Kenny Parker works to help transform the Scarlet Knights both physically and mentally, encouraging a culture of competitive excellence and commitment to pushing each player to reach their fullest potential.

"I want to build a fast, physical team that plays with relentless effort, tremendous enthusiasm, and plays for each other. I want our opponents to turn on the film and say, you know what, this is a real one. We'd better strap it on because these guys are going to come and they are going to play hard." – Chris Ash

SERVICE KNIGHTS

Each year, members of the Rutgers football program take time to give back to the community. From spending time with Special Olympics NJ, to visiting local hospitals and soup kitchens, to participating in youth camps, the student-athletes and coaches are focused on giving back wherever they are needed.

Mordecai Carthy (pictured right), a patient at Children's Specialized Hospital, joined the Scarlet Knights on the field to cap off the annual Scarlet-White game with a 93-yard touchdown run.

NFL KNIGHTS

Rutgers football has become an elite program in terms of developing players for success at the next level. The Scarlet Knights boast 20 players who have been a member of a Super Bowl team, and 14 who have hoisted the Lombardi Trophy. There are currently 23 former Scarlet Knights on active NFL rosters.

2018 saw a former Scarlet Knight advance to the Super Bowl in consecutive seasons and the 10th time in the past 14 years, as Kenny Britt, Duron Harmon and Devin McCourty traveled to Super Bowl LII as members of the New England Patriots.

"I think it's great for Rutgers football," said head coach Chris Ash, after Rutgers had five former players advance to Super Bowl LI in Houston. "You've got five players that played here that are in the Super Bowl, and it doesn't get any better than that. I think it shows a lot of people that you can achieve your dreams and your goals here at Rutgers. You don't need to go to a certain logo or a certain conference to be developed to play at the highest level. You can do that right here."

GAME DAY

HighPoint.com Stadium is home of the Rutgers Scarlet Knights and is located on-campus in Piscataway. Packed, loud, and $2,454 proud, HighPoint.com Stadium is the site for the ultimate college game day experience.

MARCO BATTAGLIA PRACTICE COMPLEX

Rutgers Athletics unveiled a state-of-the-art football practice facility, which was dedicated in the name of Marco Battaglia, a former consensus All-American and Big East Offensive Player of the Year.

The upgraded practice facility features two new Kentucky Bluegrass fields equipped with a improved drainage and irrigation systems. A separate FieldTurf playing surface with CoolPlay technology was installed, providing the Scarlet Knights with an additional area for practice drills. The complex has been fitted with a high-powered Musco LED light system. Two permanent 54-foot film towers were constructed in the complex along with two new scoreboards, a new LED video board and six game clocks. A 5,000 square foot storage unit was installed along with new maintenance equipment and permanent restrooms.

The outside facade of the complex features plaques commemorating the program's six College Football Hall of Fame honorees – Paul Robeson, Alex Kroll, Harvey Harmon, Homer Hazel, George Little and George Foster Sanford – and lists each All-American who represented Rutgers football. The entrance also includes a monument of Battaglia, the namesake of the complex.

RUTGERS FOOTBALL

FACILITIES

Rutgers football has one of the top football complexes in the nation. Included within the Hale Center is a brand new state-of-the-art weight room, interactive lobby entrance, spacious meeting rooms, a player lounge with all the latest technology and an in-house academic support center.

150 YEARS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

The Birthplace of College Football will be the site for the celebration of 150 years since the first game between Rutgers and Princeton. The yearlong festivities will highlight how far the game has come and the effect it has had on all those impacted, including coaches, players and fans.

Rutgers Athletic Director Pat Hobbs joined a committee of college football leaders to launch a nationwide celebration of the game's 150th anniversary. The commemoration will be celebrated at all divisions of intercollegiate football during the 2019 season, with a focus on November 6, and culminating with the College Football Playoff National Championship in January 2020.

COACHING STAFF

CHRIS ASH

HEAD COACH • THIRD SEASON

Chris Ash took over the helm of the Rutgers football program, his first season as a head coach in 2016, culminating a nearly 20-year career as an assistant coach.

A coach with a national championship pedigree, Ash enjoyed a decorated and accomplished career prior to arriving "On the Banks," including five years in the Big Ten Conference (four as a defensive coordinator) with four Big Ten championships.

Ash built a reputation as a relentless and tireless worker throughout his various stops. Upon becoming the 30th head coach in the 147-year history at the Birthplace of College Football, Ash made clear his vision for the Scarlet Knights program. "I want to build a first-class program here, a program that the University, the State of New Jersey, high school coaches and high school players can be proud to say that this program is theirs and they want to come here and be a part of it."

Ash has embarked on outlining the plans to complete that vision, which includes a mission to create an environment to develop student-athletes mentally, physically and spiritually to reach their full potential and to be successful in life after football.

The 2017 season was one marked by improvements for the Scarlet Knights as the team matched its program record for victories in Big Ten play, tying a league win total from 2014, the first year in the conference. Rutgers defeated Illinois on the road for its first road league win in two seasons and topped both Purdue and Maryland in front of its home crowd.

In his previous post before Rutgers, Ash served as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Ohio State and helped lead the Buckeyes to the 2014 national championship.

In his five seasons as a defensive coordinator, Ash pioneered four groups ranked in the top 25 statistically, including a top-10 defensive unit in 2015. As the defense coordinator at Wisconsin in 2011 and 2012, the Badgers put together back-to-back seasons ranked 15th overall in total defense. The 2011 squad was 13th in scoring defense while the 2012 team turned in a 17th-place ranking.

Ash was hired by Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer in January 2014 to improve a Buckeye defense that placed 112th in pass defense and 47th in total defense in 2013. In his first season, OSU's defense ranked 19th nationally in total defense and 29th in pass defense. The Buckeyes also ranked fourth in the country with 24 interceptions en route to Big Ten, Sugar Bowl and national championships.

In 2015, the Ohio State defense continued its strides under Ash, ranking second in scoring defense nationally and ninth-best in total defense. The Buckeyes earned a berth in the Fiesta Bowl, finishing the season with a 12-1 record after defeating Notre Dame in the bowl game.

The 2016 NFL Draft saw numerous players from Ash's defensive unit selected, including the first overall defensive player in Joey Bosa, who was picked third by the San Diego Chargers. In all, the draft featured six defensive players taken from Ohio State with three in the first round.

Prior to taking over the OSU defense, Ash held the defensive coordinator post and coached the secondary at the University of Arkansas in the Southeastern Conference in 2013 under head coach Bret Bielema. He helped improve Arkansas' pass defense in his one season in Fayetteville, with the Razorbacks' defense finishing 72nd nationally in passing yards allowed after ranking 113th in 2012.

Ash was first promoted to the defensive coordinator role in the Big Ten while at the University of Wisconsin, where he spent three seasons with the Badgers. His 2011 defense led the Big Ten (conference games only) in total defense and pass defense efficiency, and it ranked fourth nationally in fewest passing yards allowed (163.6), 13th in scoring (19.0) and 15th in total defense (316.4). In 2012, the UW defense ranked 15th nationally in total defense (322.5), 17th in scoring (19.1), 18th in fewest passing yards allowed (193.6), 22nd in pass efficiency and 24th against the run (128.9).

Ash began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Drake University, in 1997. He was promoted to defensive coordinator for the next two seasons before moving on to Iowa State University in 2000. Ash spent eight seasons over two different stints in Ames, including the 2009 season, during which current Texas head coach Tom Herman was also on the staff. Ash progressed from graduate assistant with the Cyclones in 2000-01 to defensive backs coach for a total of six seasons.

Ash spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at San Diego State University as the defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach and College Football Hall of Fame inductee Chuck Long.

Ash has produced numerous instructional videos, including a three-video series -- "Aggressive 4-3 Defense" -- that includes shutting down the passing game and stuffing the run segments. He has coached 34 different players that have gone on to sign NFL contracts.

A native of Ottumwa, Iowa, Ash earned his undergraduate degree from Drake in 1996, and was a two-time letterwinner at defensive back for the Bulldogs. He is one of three from that era of Drake football who became a FBS head coach, joining Dave Doeren (NC State) and Charlie Partridge (formerly with Florida Atlantic). Ash completed his master's degree in education from Iowa State in 2005.

Ash and his wife, Doreen, are the parents of a son, Brady and daughter, Alexis. Ash also has a son, Tanner, and a daughter, Jacey.

JOHN MCNULTY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

John McNulty is in his first season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Chris Ash. McNulty, who has over 25 years experience as an offensive coach, previously spent five seasons on the Scarlet Knights' sideline, including three as offensive coordinator.

McNulty piloted one of the most prolific offenses in Rutgers history in 2007 with the Scarlet Knights becoming the first program in the FBS to have a 3,000-yard passer (Mike Teel), 2,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice) and a pair of 1,000-yard receivers (Kenny Britt and Tiquan Underwood) in the same season. At the time, the 2007 squad was one of just eight teams in the 138 seasons of football at Rutgers to score 300 points in a season. The Scarlet Knights set school records for scoring (426), first downs (294) and total offense (5,841) in 2007.

During the 2007 season, Britt and Underwood became the 26th pair of teammates in the NCAA and the first in Big East history to each have at least 1,000 yards receiving in the same season. Britt led the conference with 1,232 yards and Underwood added 1,100 yards.

McNulty was part of four bowl teams during his five-year tenure at Rutgers, including three-straight wins at the Texas, International and PapaJohns.com Bowls.

Following his final season at Rutgers, McNulty spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, coaching wide receivers from 2009-11, including All-Pro receiver Larry Fitzgerald, and quarterbacks in 2012. He later joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers staff for the 2013 season, coaching rookie quarterback Mike Glennon, who earned All-Rookie honors.

McNulty served as quarterbacks coach for two seasons with the Tennessee Titans from 2014-15 under his former Arizona Cardinals coach Ken Whisenhunt. While with the Titans, he mentored second overall pick Marcus Mariota for the 2015 season. Mariota went on to earn All-Rookie honors after finishing the season with the highest passer rating among rookies (91.5). He posted four games with at least three touchdown passes in 2015, tying Peyton Manning (1998) for the most ever by an NFL rookie despite missing four games. Mariota also broke the franchise record for most passing touchdowns (19), completions (230) and passing yards (2,818) by a rookie.

Most recently, McNulty has spent the previous two seasons (2016-17) on the Los Angeles Chargers staff as tight ends coach.

Prior to his first stint with the Scarlet Knights, McNulty spent six seasons as an NFL assistant coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 1998-2002 under head coach Tom Coughlin and the Dallas Cowboys in 2003 with Hall of Fame head coach Bill Parcells. During his six-year stint, McNulty helped his teams advance to three playoff berths. While in Jacksonville, he coached two of the NFL's top receiving duos in Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell. In 2000 and 2001, the pair combined for 390 receptions and 4,903 yards, while Smith earned All-Pro honors both seasons.

McNulty began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Michigan from 1991-94. He then spent three seasons as wide receivers coach at Connecticut from 1995-97 before joining the NFL. McNulty played safety at Penn State from 1988-90, where he was a member of two Nittany Lion bowl teams.

A native of Scranton, Pa., McNulty and his wife Kim have four daughters: Abigail, Allison, Megan and Kaitlyn.

JAY NIEMANN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

Jay Niemann is in his third season as defensive coordinator for Rutgers. Niemann has over 25 years of coaching experience, including five seasons as the defensive coordinator at Northern Illinois before arriving in Piscataway.

The Scarlet Knights saw statistical improvements on defense in several areas in 2017. Rutgers intercepted 12 passes, four more than the year before. The rushing defense improved 42 spots, while scoring defense went up 38 slots in the national rankings and total defense improved by 25.

In his first year leading the RU defense, Niemann's unit finished sixth in the nation in red zone defense (.727) and 18th in passing yards allowed per game (186.5). Blessuan Austin, who ranked second in the Big Ten and 12th nationally with 1.4 passes defended per game, highlighted the group by being named honorable mention All-Big Ten.

Previously, Niemann led the defense for a Northern Illinois program that won the Mid-American Conference West division in five-straight seasons with three league titles. Also coaching the safeties, the Huskies played in a bowl game in all of those seasons, including a berth in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

In his first season in DeKalb, Niemann oversaw the development of a young defense. By week six, the Huskies turned in their best defensive game of the season statistically and in the 2011 MAC Championship game, the NIU defense shut out Ohio in the second half en route to a 23-20 victory, the school's first MAC football title in 28 years.

Niemann came to NIU after spending three seasons as co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Hardin-Simmons University in Texas. During his tenure with the Cowboys, Niemann helped turn a defense that ranked last in the nation prior to his arrival into the No. 2 unit in the American Southwest Conference in 2009.

Niemann compiled a 32-29 record in his six seasons as head coach at Simpson (2002-07). He led the Storm to the 2003 NCAA playoffs while also serving as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Niemann coached the secondary, linebackers and filled the role of defensive coordinator during his five seasons at Northern Iowa. One of Niemann's UNI pupils, cornerback Ty Talton, went on to play in the NFL.

Prior to his arrival at UNI, Niemann spent eight seasons at Ash's alma mater, Drake. After serving as the defensive backs coach from 1989-94, he was promoted to defensive coordinator/assistant head coach in 1995. In his final three seasons, the Bulldog defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense, pass efficiency defense and total defense.

Niemann began his coaching career in 1985 at Western Washington where he coached the linebackers and special teams units. He accepted the graduate assistant position at the University of Washington, working with the Husky linebackers and defensive backs from 1986-88.

A graduate of Iowa State, Niemann played football for the Cyclones from 1979-82 as a linebacker. He earned his master's degree from Western Washington in 1988. Niemann and his wife, Lou Ann, have two sons, Ben and Nick.

VINCE OKRUCH

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS

Vince Okruch is in his third year as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach for Rutgers. Prior to joining RU, Okruch spent two seasons (2014-15) at Ohio State as quality control coach for the kicking game and defense.

With more than 35 years of coaching experience, Okruch has worked with some of the legendary names in college football, including Lou Holtz, Bill McCartney, Gary Barnett and Urban Meyer.

Okruch spent three seasons at the University of Akron before joining the Buckeyes. While at Akron from 2009-11, he coached on the defensive side of the ball, overseeing the defensive tackles, safeties and linebackers at different times during his stint. He also served as special teams coordinator.

Okruch has over 15 years of experience coaching in the Big Ten with stops at Minnesota, where he coached under Holtz and John Gutekunst, Northwestern (Barnett) and Illinois (Ron Zook). Okruch coached alongside Barnett for a total of 12 years, including five seasons as the defensive coordinator at the University of Colorado.

In 2009 while at Akron, Okruch tutored Zips linebacker Brian Wagner who was named consensus Freshman All-America, including first-team honors by Sporting News.

Prior to coming to Akron, Okruch served as defensive coordinator at Illinois for one season. Under his guidance, the 2006 Illini defense made the jump to the upper half of the Big Ten. Nationally, the unit ranked 33rd in total defense (310.17 ypg), 31st in pass defense (182.25 ypg) and 31st in pass efficiency defense (115.20 rating).

Okruch came to Illinois after one season as linebackers coach at Louisiana-Monroe and one year as defensive coordinator at Western Illinois. ULM posted a 5-2 conference record and were Sun Belt co-champions.

He spent five seasons as the defensive coordinator at Colorado (1999-2003). During his time at CU, the Buffs' defense held opponents to under 100 yards rushing 18 times and limited their foes to below 300 yards total offense on 12 occasions.

Before heading to Colorado, Okruch was part of Barnett's staff at Northwestern (1992-98), which won two Big Ten titles and made a trip to the 1996 Rose Bowl and 1997 Citrus Bowl. At NU, he served as defensive line coach for five years (1992-96) and two seasons as defensive coordinator (1997-98).

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., and a graduate of Culver-Stockton College in Canton, Mo., Okruch earned four letters playing both quarterback and tight end at Culver-Stockton. He also was a member of its baseball team. After completing his bachelor's degree in physical education, he went on to earn his master's degree at Northeast Missouri State in 1980. He and his wife, Janet, have two children; a daughter, Taylor, and a son, Jordan.

NOAH JOSEPH

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES

Noah Joseph is in his first season as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach on the Rutgers staff. A native of Ohio, Joseph has nearly 20 years of coaching experience, including a stint with Iowa State where Ash was the defensive backs coach in 2002.

Joseph spent four seasons in the Big Ten as a member of the Indiana coaching staff where he oversaw the safeties and served as recruiting coordinator on the defensive side of the ball. In 2017, the Hoosiers ranked fourth in the Big Ten in passing defense, and in 2016, the Joseph-coached secondary accounted for 13 takeaways, while Marcelino Ball, Jonathan Crawford and Tony Fields were third, fourth and fifth, respectively on the team in tackles. In his first season at Indiana, Joseph's safeties accounted for seven of IU's 13 interceptions.

Prior to his stint at Indiana, Joseph spent two seasons at North Texas as the safeties coach and recruiting coordinator in 2012 and 2013. While there, the Mean Green finished 2013 with a 9-4 record and won the Heart of Dallas Bowl. The nine wins tied for the second-most victories in program history. Joseph coached a pair of All-Conference USA selections that season in Marcus Trice and Lairamie Lee, including a safeties group that had eight interceptions, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

Joseph served as co-defensive coordinator in 2011 at Montana State and was the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator from 2007-10. The Bobcats secondary led the Big Sky Conference in pass efficiency defense (18th nationally) and pass defense (22nd nationally). Montana State finished 27th in the country in total defense and recorded 44 sacks, which led the league and ranked seventh in the nation.

During his four seasons at Eastern Illinois University from 2003-06, Joseph produced one of the top pass efficiency defenses in the nation in 2005. He also worked as a graduate assistant at Drake University (2000), Eastern Kentucky University (2001) and Iowa State University (2002).

Joseph played collegiately at Drake, where he earned Academic All-Pioneer Football League honors and was captain of the 1998 team. Joseph holds the school record for the longest interception return (100 yards) at Wayne (Neb.) State in 1997. He received his degree from Drake in 1999 and a master's degree from Iowa State in 2003.

Joseph and his wife Lyla have two daughters - Lily and Chloe.

AJ BLAZEK

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE

AJ Blazek is in his third season as offensive line coach and second season as assistant head coach for the Scarlet Knights. A former Big Ten student-athlete at Iowa, Blazek spent three seasons on the staff at Western Illinois prior to coming to Rutgers.

In 2017, the offensive line paved the way for an increase in rushing touchdowns with 19 and registered over 300 yards of total offense in five games, including three contests with 200-plus yards on the ground. The unit also ranked second in the Big Ten allowing just 18 sacks. Left tackle Tariq Cole became a back-to-back All-Big Ten honorable mention selection.

In his first year in Piscataway, Blazek mentored a line mixed with veterans and underclassmen. Cole earned honorable mention All-Big Ten in his first season as a starter. In addition, center Derrick Nelson and right guard Chris Muller, who both served as team captains, each signed NFL contracts following the season.

Blazek worked as the offensive line coach and the run game coordinator for Western Illinois from 2013-15 before joining the Scarlet Knights. In each season, the Leathernecks had a 1,000-yard rusher and an All-Missouri Valley Football Conference offensive line selection.

In 2015, WIU earned an at-large bid in the FCS playoffs and advanced to the second round. The team averaged nearly 400 yards of total offense per game and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation in fewest tackles for loss allowed. Sophomore center Jacob Judd also collected all-conference recognition.

In his first year, Blazek helped the offensive line improve nearly 30 spots nationally in sacks allowed from the previous 2012 season, and more than 60 spots compared from two seasons before that.

Prior to arriving at Western Illinois, Blazek had a four-year stint at Winona State in Minnesota. He worked with the offensive line and tight ends and was the co-offensive coordinator in his final three seasons with the Warriors. Blazek was named the 2012 "Assistant Coach of the Year" by the American Football Coaches Association.

During his four years, Blazek coached 14 of his position players to All-Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference honors - including four All-NSIC offensive linemen and one All-NSIC tight end in 2012.

Before joining Winona State, Blazek was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Fort Hays State (2005-08) in Kansas. He coached five offensive linemen to all-conference honors and one ESPN Academic All-American, Jordan Stricker, in 2008. Offensive tackle Wes Yarbrough signed a NFL free agent contract with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Blazek began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Iowa. He coached for four seasons (2001-04), the first year as a student assistant before becoming a graduate assistant coach.

In 2003 while working with the offensive line, Blazek helped tutor the future No. 2 overall NFL draft pick, Robert Gallery. He also coached six other NFL draft picks at Iowa: Eric Steinbach (Cincinnati/2nd round), Bruce Nelson (Carolina/2nd round), Seth Olsen (Denver/4th round), Ben Sobieski (Buffalo/5th round), Pete McMahon (Oakland/6th round) and Mike Elgin (New England/7th round).

Following his All-America and Academic All-America career at Butler County Community College, Blazek was a two-year letterwinner at center for the Hawkeyes. He earned All-Big Ten Conference honors in 2000 and was a co-captain during that 2000 season. Twice he earned Academic All-Big Ten Conference honors.

A native of Wichita, Kan., Blazek received his bachelor's degree in Health Promotions in 2001, then a master's degree in Sports Administration in 2004, both at Iowa. He and his wife Kyla have four children: Cooper, Macey, Reece and Quincy.

COREY BROWN

DEFENSIVE LINE

Corey Brown is in his first season as defensive line coach after being hired by head coach Chris Ash on Jan. 30, 2018. A native of Houston with 12 years of coaching experience, Brown spent the last four seasons coaching the defensive line at Miami (Ohio) after a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame.

In 2017, Brown was part of a defensive staff that led a unit ranked 14th in the country in red zone defense, 24th in first downs defense and 43rd in scoring defense. Ikeem Allen earned third team All-MAC to make it four all-conference honors from the defensive line under Brown's watch in as many seasons.

In his first year with the RedHawks, Brown mentored a pair of defensive ends in Bryson Albright and J'Terius Jones, who combined for 11 sacks during the 2014 season. Jones and Albright improved on their play in 2015, combining for 17 sacks. Jones would earn third team All-MAC honors and finish second in the league with 10 sacks, while Albright was named second team all-conference. Brown's defensive front had one of the best games in Miami history in a contest versus Eastern Michigan in which the RedHawks recorded a school-record eight sacks versus the Eagles.

Jones would earn second-team All-MAC honors in 2016, but Brown also guided Austin Gearing, a former Miami quarterback, to be a productive member of Miami's starting defensive line.

Before that, Brown worked as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame for two seasons. The 2012 Fighting Irish advanced to the BCS National Championship Game after posting a perfect 12-0 regular season, meeting Alabama in the title contest. That team allowed only four rushing touchdowns, holding eight different opponents under 100 yards, for the fewest in the nation. Both defensive end Stephon Tuitt and defensive tackle Louis Nix would go on to be drafted in the top three rounds from the unit.

Prior to Notre Dame, Brown coached for four seasons at Iowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs, Iowa. He focused on the defensive line and also served as a strength and conditioning coach. Brown helped six players earn scholarships to Football Bowl Subdivision schools such as Oregon, Washington State, West Virginia and Iowa State. He coached one All-America pick and had eight all-region or all-conference performers.

From 2006-07, Brown coached the defensive line and again was a strength and conditioning coach at North Iowa Area Community College.

A Big Ten alumnus, Brown graduated from the University of Iowa in 2005 with a sociology degree. He was a member of the Hawkeyes football team from 1995-99. As a senior in 1999, Brown started all 11 games at defensive tackle, ranked ninth on the team with 52 tackles and earned the team's defensive hustle award. Brown was also teammates with Rutgers' current offensive line coach AJ Blazek during the 1999 campaign, the first for the program under Kirk Ferentz.

Following college, Brown played five years on the defensive and offensive line for the Quad City Steam Wheelers in the Arena Football League 2. Brown helped the Steam Wheelers claim back-to-back AFL championships as Quad City posted a combined 37-1 record in Brown's first two seasons with the club.

Brown and his wife Susan welcomed their first child, a son Blaze in June. Brown has two daughters, Erin and Kayla.

Nunzio Campanile is in his first season as the Scarlet Knights' running backs coach. A graduate of Paramus Catholic, Campanile spent the previous eight seasons as the head coach at Bergen Catholic, including winning a state title in 2017, after working as offensive coordinator at Don Bosco Prep from 2000-09.

Campanile compiled a 60-28 (.681) record leading the Crusaders from 2010-17 as a perennial top-100 football national power. The team capped off the 2017 season by capturing the Non-Public, Group 4 title, the first state championship for the program since 2004, with a 44-7 triumph over St. Peter's Prep that featured over 400 yards of total offense. Bergen Catholic went 10-2 overall with a nine-game winning streak to end the season, finishing 10-0 against New Jersey competition to earn the No. 1 ranking in the state.

The Crusaders saw seven all-state quarterbacks under Campanile's watch and averaged over 35 points per game during his tenure. Numerous prospects signed scholarship offers across the country.

In 2012, Campanile was selected by USA Football to join the coaching staff for the US Under-19 National Team that competed in the third annual International Bowl in Austin, Texas.

Prior to arriving in Oradell, Campanile worked under legendary coach Greg Toal at Don Bosco Prep. The Ironmen won six state titles in 10 seasons with Campanile as the offensive coordinator with a 112-6 record, claiming the national championship in 2009. He mentored quarterbacks Mike Teel and Gary Nova during that time, who would both go on to set passing records at Rutgers.

Campanile also previously served as the head wrestling coach and athletic director at Don Bosco Prep, winning the 2010 Non-Public A state title on the mat. He has additionally worked as a history and physical education teacher.

Campanile comes from a football family, having played quarterback and safety for his father, Mike, at Paramus Catholic. His brothers, Vito, Nick and Anthony, are coaches as well.

A 1999 graduate of Montclair State University, Campanile also attended Amherst College for two years. He has been married to his wife Heather for 14 years and the couple has two children, Michael (11) and James (5).

LESTER ERB

WIDE RECEIVERS

Lester Erb is in his second season on the Rutgers staff and first season coaching the wide receivers. He spent his first year at RU coaching the running backs coach. Erb has over 25 years of coaching experience, including 13 seasons in the Big Ten Conference at Iowa.

Prior to arriving at Rutgers, Erb spent four seasons at Nevada where he served as running backs coach and special teams coordinator from 2013-15 before holding the post of assistant head coach and wide receivers coach in 2016.

In 2015, Erb coached a pair of 1,000-yard running backs en route to a 7-6 record and victory in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. It marked the third time in program history that two running backs topped the 1,000-yard mark in the same season.

A standout recruiter throughout his career, Erb was twice recognized by Rivals.com as one of the nation's top-25 recruiters in 2005 and 2011.

Erb spent 13 seasons at Iowa, including the final five years as the running backs coach. He also worked eight seasons as the wide receivers coach and coached special teams throughout his tenure in Iowa City. Overall while at Iowa, Erb and the Hawkeyes went to 11 bowl games, including six January bowl trips during his tenure. They won a share of two Big Ten Championships and finished in the final top 10 of both major polls four times.

In his first season working with the Iowa running backs in 2008, Erb coached Shonn Greene to the Doak Walker Award and consensus All-American honors while being named the Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. He rushed for 1,850 yards to set an Iowa single-season rushing mark and was the only running back in the nation to surpass 100 yards in every game during the season.

Erb was also an integral part of special teams in Iowa City as the Hawkeyes led the Big Ten and ranked 25th in the nation in net punting in 2011. The Hawkeyes ranked third in the Big Ten in net punting in 2010 after ranking fourth in 2009, third in 2008 and second in 2007. Senior punter Ryan Donahue was a finalist for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year award in 2010.

Erb coached kicker Nate Kaeding to first team All-America honors in both 2002 and 2003. Kaeding was named winner of the 2002 Lou Groza Placekicker of the Year award and was one of three finalists for the award in 2003.

Erb began his career at Hobart College coaching wide receivers. He then spent three seasons at Syracuse, where he assisted with the offensive line and scout team preparation while earning a master's degree.

Erb played receiver at Bucknell University, where he set records for touchdown receptions in a season and career. He set a school record for average yards per catch in a single game when he averaged 33.7 yards on six catches vs. Fordham. His 902 receiving yards in 1989 ranks second best all-time at Bucknell. He ranks fifth in career all-purpose yards (3,286) and was Bucknell's Most Valuable Player as a senior in 1990.

He earned his B.A. in business administration from Bucknell and his M.A. in high educational administration from Syracuse.

He and his wife, Eileen, have four children, sons Jacob and A.J., and daughters Emily and Sarah.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS/SPECIALISTS

Toby Neinas is in his third season at Rutgers and first as a coach working with the outside linebackers and specialists.

Previously the director of player personnel for RU from 2016-17, he arrived in Piscataway with over 20 years of collegiate coaching experience, including three seasons (2013-15) as the special teams coordinator at Colorado.

Prior to his stint with the Buffaloes, Neinas coached the secondary at Montana State during the 2012 season. In his lone year at Montana State, the Bobcats finished as tri-champions of the Big Sky Conference with an 11-2 mark and an appearance in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) quarterfinals. Under Neinas' guidance, Montana State finished 14th in the nation in pass efficiency defense, holding opponents to just a 52.6 completion percentage and recording 13 interceptions.

Before arriving at Montana State, Neinas spent the previous three seasons at New Mexico (2009-11). Neinas was the special teams coordinator in his first two years with the Lobos before being promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2011 season. Neinas coached two All-Mountain West Conference performers during his time at New Mexico.

Neinas served three seasons on the San Diego State coaching staff (2006-08), coordinating the special teams all three years along with coaching the Aztec tight ends in 2006 and 2007 and the outside linebackers in 2008. At SDSU, he coached punter Michael Hughes to honorable mention All-America honors in 2007 and tutored Tyler Schmitt, the only long snapper specialist selected in the 2008 NFL Draft. Ash was also on the San Diego State staff in 2007 and 2008.

In addition to his positions at Colorado, Montana State, New Mexico and San Diego State, Neinas enjoyed full-time assistant coaching stints at Temple (2002-05), Alabama-Birmingham (1996-2001) and North Carolina (1995).

Neinas earned his bachelor's degree in history in 1995 at the University of Missouri, where he began his coaching career as a student assistant. He and his wife, Cassie, have three sons, Charlie, Henry and Edward.

KENNY PARKER

HEAD FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Kenny Parker is in his third season as head strength and conditioning coach for the Rutgers football program. Prior to arriving in Piscataway, Parker spent four seasons as an assistant with the Ohio State football program.

As a key member of the staff, Parker leads the strength and conditioning program for the Scarlet Knights. That includes implementing the in-season and offseason workouts, and preparing the team both physically and mentally.

Prior to joining Rutgers, Parker served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Ohio State for four seasons. A 2005 graduate of the University of Florida, Parker came to Ohio State after two seasons as a defensive line coach and strength coach at Murray State University.

Parker, who also spent a year in a director of player development capacity while at Murray State, was responsible for all of the Racers' in-season and off-season training in his strength coach role. His players made great strides in the weight room, and on the field his defensive line helped the Racers rank fourth nationally in tackles-for-loss as it combined for 54 tackles-for-loss, including 16 quarterback sacks.

Parker spent 10 years as a player and/or coach with the Gators, and was part of the Gators' programs when the team won a National Championship and three Southeastern Conference titles.

His playing career with the Gators spanned 2000 through 2004, including redshirt seasons in 2001 and 2002 because of a back injury. He was a starting defensive tackle in 2003 and 2004. Following his graduation in 2005 (sociology), Parker worked in a number of roles with UF, including as a defensive intern, graduate assistant and as an assistant director with the school's football camps. He left Florida after the 2009 season for his position at Murray State.

Parker played his prep ball at Northside (Ga.) High School, where he was a USA Today All-American and was rated as one of the nation's top 20 defensive tackles by Rivals.com. Parker was a two-time all-state honoree and played in the Florida-Georgia all-star game as a senior.

Parker and his wife Melissa are from Warner Robins, Ga. The couple has a young daughter, Kyndal, and twin boys, Kellen and Kaden.

ANTHONY VAN CUREN

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Anthony Van Curen enters his second year as a defensive assistant with the Rutgers staff in 2017, working primarily with the linebackers. Van Curen previously worked in player development for the Scarlet Knights during the 2016 season.

Prior to his time with RU, Van Curen was an assistant defensive line coach at Fairleigh Dickinson University from 2014-16. Van Curen also worked as a training camp operations assistant with the Buffalo Bills. Van Curen played collegiately at St. John Fisher College, where he was a four-year linebacker, long snapper and special teams player. During his time at Fisher, the Cardinals compiled a 33-12 record, won the 2008 ECAC Northeast Championship Bowl, the 2009 & 2010 ECAC Northwest Bowl and were the 2010 Empire 8 Co-Champions.

Van Curen earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from St. John Fisher in 2012 and his master's degree in sport administration from Fairleigh Dickinson University in 2016.

CHARLES WATKINS

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Charles Watkins is in his first season on the Rutgers football staff, serving as an offensive assistant, working with the wide receivers.

In his role with the Scarlet Knights, Watkins assists the wide receiver coach with the weekly game plan, handles opponent film breakdown and provides game information packets for players each week. He also plays a role on special teams, helping with select coaching responsibilities.

Prior to his arrival at Rutgers, Watkins worked as the wide receiver coach and academic coordinator at Southeastern Oklahoma State University. While there, he developed, oversaw and implemented individualized academic support plans for assigned student-athletes.

Watkins spent two seasons at Coe College on the defensive side of the ball, where he served as secondary coach and passing game coordinator. During his time at Coe, the Kohawks won their conference championship with an 11-1 record. He also coached the conference's defensive player of the year, an All-American defensive back and a first team and second all-conference selection.

A native of Camden, N.J., Watkins played collegiately at Duke University and Wagner College. He appeared in 26 games as a wide receiver at Duke and closed out his career at Wagner with 484 yards on 45 receptions in 11 games. At Duke, he was named to the Dean's List and was a two-time All-ACC Academic Honor Roll.

Upon graduating, Watkins went on to serve as the head coach of the Eastern Junior Vikings in Camden. He also continued playing professionally in the Indoor Football League with the Cedar Rapids Titans. He helped guide the team to a 9-4 record and led all rookie wide receivers in receptions, yards and touchdowns.

MARQUISE WATSON

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Marquise Watson enters his first season as a defensive assistant with the Rutgers staff, working primarily with the defensive line. Watson previously served as an assistant coach at Amherst College.

While at Amherst, Watson coached the running backs and was the team's video coordinator. During his tenure, he coached the league leader in rushing touchdowns, including a pair of All-NESAC selections. He also assisted and coached a position on every special teams unit in 2017.

Prior to joining the Amherst staff, Watson coached at his alma mater Bryant University as a student assistant working with the linebackers and defensive line. He assisted in the creation of practice plans and conducted player film sessions.

A first-team All-Northeast Conference selection and two-time captain, Watson started four years at Bryant, spending his first three seasons at linebacker before playing defensive line as a senior. He earned co-defensive Player of the Year honors in 2017 and closed his career as the program's all-time leader in tackles with 256.

Watson earned his bachelor's degree in communication from Bryant in 2017. A native of Hillside, N.J., he was a graduate of Paramus Catholic High School.

JOHN WEISS

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

John Weiss is in his first season on the Rutgers football staff, serving as an offensive assistant, working with the offensive line.

This is the second Big Ten stop for Weiss after a two-year stint on the Nebraska football staff. He served as an offensive assistant with the Cornhuskers, working primarily with the running backs.

In his first season with the Huskers, Weiss oversaw the development of fullback Luke McNitt, who was a strong blocker at the position, while ranking as one of the team's top special teams performers.

Weiss came to Nebraska after spending fall 2015 at DePaul Catholic High School in Wayne, N.J., helping coach the offensive line, defensive line and serving as the special teams coordinator. Weiss helped lead the team to the 2015 New Jersey State Championship, where the Spartans claimed the state title.

Prior, Weiss interned at Southern Connecticut State, where he worked with the wide receivers in the spring of 2015.

Weiss played at Southern Connecticut State in a variety of roles, including tight end, fullback, on the offensive line and special teams. Before his time at SCSU, Weiss spent his freshman year at Southern Illinois.

Weiss played high school football at DePaul Catholic in Wayne, N.J. He played tight end and spent time on the defensive line while with the Spartans.

MATT HEWITT

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Matt Hewitt enters his first season as an offensive quality control coach on the Rutgers staff after spending his first two seasons as a recruiting assistant.

Hewitt transitioned to working with the Rutgers running backs during spring practice in 2018. Prior to that, Hewitt oversaw the social media efforts for the program as a member of the recruiting staff. He also analyzed and broke down prospect highlight reels and assisted with on-campus recruiting visits.

Hewitt began his collegiate coaching career in 2014 as the safeties and assistant special teams coach at William Paterson. He later coached tight ends at Bergen Catholic High School in 2015 and returned to college as a defensive quality control coach at Dartmouth College from 2015-16. The Big Green boasted the top ranked scoring defense, red zone defense and was fifth in total defense in the FCS en route to the 2015 Ivy League Championship.

In addition to his collegiate experience, Hewitt has served additional stints on the professional level, including the National Football League, Canadian Football League, Arena Football League and Indoor Football League.

Hewitt played scholastically at Dwight Morrow High School in Englewood, N.J. before going on to Alfred State College.

Hewitt later transferred to Arkansas where he advanced to the Capital One Bowl in 2006 and AT&T Cotton Bowl in 2007. He was named to the Associated Press Second Team All-SEC in 2007.

Hewitt and Fatimah Holmes are the parents to three children - Josiah, Amiyah and Mariah.

MICHAEL MCCARTHY

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Michael McCarthy is in his first season with the Rutgers coaching staff as an offensive quality control coach, working primarily with the quarterbacks.

McCarthy arrives at Rutgers after spending the previous three seasons in the National Football League with the Cleveland Browns in 2015 and most recently with the Detroit Lions (2016-17).

McCarthy began his career as a scouting and video intern for the New York Jets in 2008 and earned his first coaching job as the offensive line coach at the College of New Jersey in 2009. He then spent two seasons at Western Michigan as the video coordinator from 2010-11 and was an offensive graduate assistant at Tulane in 2012 and 2013.

Before rejoining the NFL, McCarthy served a season as the tight ends coach at North Carolina Central.

A native of East Brunswick, N.J., McCarthy played outside linebacker and long snapper at Widener University. He and his wife Catie have a son, Michael Jr.

MATT POPINO

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Matt Popino is in his third season on the Rutgers football staff and enters his first year as a defensive quality control coach, working primarily with the inside linebackers.

In his previous two seasons with the Scarlet Knights, Popino served as a defensive intern during the 2016 season and was on the player development staff in 2017. With player development, he assisted the defensive line coach in recruiting efforts, evaluating prospects in central New Jersey and parts of Florida. As a defensive intern, Popino assisted the cornerbacks coach in weekly game planning, scouting reports and recruiting. He also created weekly cut ups and meeting presentations.

Prior to arriving at Rutgers, Popino served as the linebackers coach and video coordinator at Fitchburg State in 2015. In addition to his duties coaching linebackers, he was responsible for film exchange and editing film material. Popino recruited New York and New Jersey as well as monitored the team's social media accounts.

Popino began his coaching career as an assistant defensive backs coach at Worcester State during the 2013 and 2014 seasons. He assisted in practice and game planning and instructed individual drills for the secondary and special teams.

A native of Metuchen, N.J., Popino is a 2014 graduate of Worcester State where he played tight end, guard and center for the Lancers.

ADAM WEBER

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Adam Weber joined the Rutgers staff in 2016 as a defensive quality control coach, working primarily with the safeties.

He arrived at Rutgers from Ohio State, where he served as a defensive assistant under then-defensive coordinator Chris Ash. He worked for the Buckeyes for two and a half years, beginning in July of 2013.

Prior to OSU, Weber worked in the athletic department at Bishop Kenny High School in Jacksonville, Fla. He also served as an account assistant representative with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Weber earned his Bachelor's Degree from the University of North Florida in sports management in 2012. While at UNF, he worked in the Ospreys' athletic department as a development intern.

DREW LASCARI

SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL

Drew Lascari enters his first season on the Rutgers football staff, serving as special teams quality control. Prior to his arrival at RU, Lascari was the head coach at Cardinal Mooney Catholic High School in Sarasota, Fla.

Lascari spent three seasons at the helm of the Cardinal Mooney varsity team, establishing the structure, core beliefs and goals for the football program. He was responsible for organizing all practices, game plan implementation and scheduling, while managing a staff of 15 coaches. Lascari led a six-win improvement as the team went from 2-8 in year one to an 8-2 record in his second season. He also oversaw the academic progress management for each student and designed the team's strength program.

A native of Pequannock, N.J., Lascari began his coaching career at Don Bosco Prep where he spent six seasons with the Ironmen. He served as the offensive coordinator during his tenure, including coaching the wide receiver and quarterback positions. Lascari was also the team's NCAA placement coordinator and head strength coach.

Lascari developed the daily practice schedule and scripts, as well as handled all offensive installations, scouting reports and game film analysis. While at Don Bosco, Lascari coached former Rutgers wide receiver and All-Big Ten selection Leonte Carroo.

Lascari graduated from Pequannock Township High School and later played football at SUNY Cortland where he was a four-year letterwinner and Academic All-American. He earned a bachelor's degree in Health Science from SUNY Cortland and a master's degree in sports management at Columbia University.

WILL GILKISON

ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR/FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Will Gilkison enters his eighth season as director of football operations. For Gilkison, it is his 17th season overall with the Rutgers football program, including his time as a four-year letterwinner. He previously served in the capacity of director of external operations and prior to that was a member of the Rutgers football coaching staff for three seasons.

Gilkison's duties include the oversight of the day-to-day operations of the football program, along with logistical and budgetary responsibilities. He also manages team travel, organizes preseason camp and serves as the team's liaison to other athletic department offices and university branches.

A four-year letterwinner at linebacker with the Scarlet Knights, Gilkison captained the 2005 Insight Bowl team and was the recipient of the Paul Robeson Award, presented annually to the individual whose performance, leadership, and dedication on and off the field during his career has had the greatest impact on Rutgers football.

Gilkison became a member of the staff in 2006 as a student assistant. He was responsible for helping prepare and implement weekly practice schedules. Gilkison also worked as a strength and conditioning assistant during this time, creating and facilitating off-season training programs while instructing players in skill development.

In 2008, Gilkison joined the player development staff, serving as a mentor for first and second year players. He oversaw the transition of these individuals into the college environment, assisting them with basic life skills, time management, goal setting and prioritizing. He and his wife Katie currently reside in Union Beach, N.J. The couple have six children, Margaret, William, Grace, Gunnar, Harrison and Penelope.

BRANDON ARMSTRONG

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC TRAINING SERVICES FOR FOOTBALL

Brandon Armstrong is in his third season as the director of athletic training services for football. He oversees all aspects of athletic training from injury prevention to rehabilitation within the program.

Prior to arriving in Piscataway, Armstrong spent two years as an assistant athletic trainer with the Nebraska football team. He assisted with all areas of the athletic medicine efforts for the program, including year-round preventive care, immediate care for injured athletes at practice and games and the reconditioning of injured athletes.

Before that, Armstrong spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons as an athletic training intern with the New England Patriots. Previously, Armstrong worked the 2010 and 2011 seasons as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Alabama, which won the 2011 national championship.

Armstrong earned bachelor's degrees in athletic training from Morehead State in exercise science in 2007 and in athletic training from Eastern Kentucky in 2010. He earned his Master of Science degree in health studies with a concentration in athletic training from Alabama in 2012.

ADAM CALTURY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL/RECRUITING OPERATIONS

Adam Caltury is in his third season on the Rutgers football staff. Caltury was elevated to director of player personnel in 2018 after spending his first two seasons as director of recruiting.

In his role, Caltury oversees all aspects of the program's recruiting efforts, including prospect evaluation, on-campus visits, planning logistics as well as communication and outreach to prospects.

Caltury spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons at Ohio State, working as a recruiting assistant. Prior to joining the Buckeyes, he served as offensive coordinator at Central Valley High School in Pennsylvania.

Caltury graduated from Monaca High School in 2008 where he began his coaching career as the quarterbacks and wide receivers coach for two seasons. In 2010, he joined the staff at Central Valley serving as the wide receivers coach for three seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2013.

Caltury and his wife Erica are natives of Pittsburgh, Pa., and both graduated from Slippery Rock. The couple welcomed their first child in June 2016, a daughter named Addison Lee.

KEVIN GADOWRY

TECHNICAL COORDINATOR/AUDIO-VISUAL SERVICES

Kevin Gadowry is in his first season in the role of technical coordinator/audio-visual services as he heads the Rutgers video staff. Prior to arriving in Piscataway, Gadowry spent more than a decade as a member of the video staff at Florida State.

At Rutgers, Gadowry is responsible for overseeing the practice and game film operation as well as supporting the audio/visual needs for the coaching staff.

Gadowry spent nine seasons as video coordinator at Florida State. With the Seminoles, he oversaw daily football video operations including filming practices, games, and organizing meetings inside the football facility. He also reviewed and discussed video application with the football coaching staff on a daily basis to get the most out of recorded practices and games.

In addition to his work with the football team, Gadowry also oversaw the video operations for the nationally ranked Seminoles baseball team, including the scheduling and recording of hundreds of opponent scouting games for breakdown by the coaching staff. He also organized application of XOS Thunder and XOS ThunderCloud for use by the baseball team for pitcher, hitter and opponent scouting cutups.

Gadowry began his career in college athletics as a student video assistant with Florida State. He recorded opponent scouting games for weekly analysis of upcoming opponents by the coaching staff for football and baseball. Gadowry also traveled with the FSU baseball team to provide video support on road trips, including recording games and assisting in post-game film review.

A 2009 graduate of Florida State, Gadowry earned his bachelor's degree in sport management. He is a current member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

ALLISON KREIMEIER

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

Allison Kreimeier joined the Rutgers University Division of Intercollegiate Athletics in March 2016 as its inaugural director of performance nutrition. She is tasked with developing a top performance nutrition program to serve the more than 600 student-athletes that compete for the State University of New Jersey.

Kreimeier's responsibilities include individual nutrition counseling, team and staff education, menu development, coordinating travel nutrition, overseeing training tables and fueling stations, and developing nutrition and hydration strategies.

The Stuttgart, Arkansas, native arrived "On the Banks" after serving as director of football nutrition at the University of Houston, which captured the 2015 American Athletic Conference and Peach Bowl championships. She began her stint with the Cougars as an intern sports dietitian.

Prior to serving at Houston, Kreimeier worked as a clinical dietitian at CHI St. Vincent Infirmary and a Family and Consumer Science Specialist with Arkansas Department of Health.

Kreimeier earned her bachelor's degree in dietetics/nutrition from the University of Central Arkansas in 2012 and her master's degree in family and consumer sciences with emphasis on nutrition from Central Arkansas in 2013. She completed post-graduate hours as a dietetic intern at the University of Central Oklahoma in 2014.

Kreimeier is a Board Certified Specialist in Sports Dietetics. She sits on the American Dairy Association North East (ADANE) Sport Nutrition Advisory Panel and is a member of the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitian Association (CPSDA), the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, and the Sports Cardiovascular and Wellness Dietetic Practice Group (SCAN).

The 2017 recipient of the Young Achiever Award at Central Arkansas' annual FACS Alumni Banquet, Kreimeier published an article in the August 2017 edition of Friday Night Football Coaches Magazine on Game Day Nutrition.

NICK QUARTARO

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

winning the Heart of Dallas Bowl over UNLV for the program's third bowl win.

Prior to joining North Texas, Quartaro was the associate head coach and offensive coordinator at Kansas from 2002-06, where he helped the Jayhawks earn two bowl game appearances (2003 Tangerine Bowl, 2005 Fort Worth Bowl). During his time at Kansas, 19 offensive players earned Big 12 All-Conference accolades.

The 2005 Jayhawk offense set a school record for bowl-game total yards with 538 against Houston in a victory in the Fort Worth Bowl, and in 2006 running back Jon Cornish led the Big 12 in rushing while setting a school record for yards in a season with 1,457. During the 2003 campaign, Quartaro helped orchestrate a KU offense that set 12 different single-season school records at the time including most points (384), most touchdown passes (25) and most total yards gained (5,479).

Prior to arriving in Lawrence, Quartaro was an integral part of the rebuilding processes at Iowa State and Kansas State as an assistant coach, and at Fordham and Drake as a head coach. He successfully altered the record of a formerly winless football program at Fordham, and was associate head coach and worked with Kansas State's tight ends and special teams in the Wildcats' gridiron turnaround.

Quartaro, who served as wide receivers coach at ISU from 1998-2001, was instrumental in helping the Cyclones achieve back-to-back appearances in bowl games his last two seasons and the best combined record (16-7) in 23 years. His influence was felt in ISU's 9-3 record, top 25 ranking and victory over Pittsburgh in the 2000 Insight.com Bowl.

Quartaro was named head coach at Fordham University in 1994 and spent four years building a winning program. In 1997, Quartaro's last season, the Rams finished with their first-ever winning record in the Patriot League, a 4-2 mark, good for third place. Prior to his appointment at Fordham, Quartaro had a five-year tenure as part of the original staff of Bill Snyder at Kansas State. Elevated to assistant head coach in his second year and associate head coach in his third season, Quartaro helped K-State to its first bowl game in the Snyder era in the 1993 Copper Bowl. He also had assignments as tight ends and special teams coach for the Wildcats.

Quartaro served as head coach at Drake University for three years (1986-88) and guided the Bulldogs to a 7-3 mark in his third and final year. He also worked five years (1981-85) at Northwestern under former NFL head coach Dennis Green assisting with the secondary, the defensive line, and coordinating the special teams and coached future 14-year NFL punter John Kidd and special teams standout Steve Tasker of the Buffalo Bills.

After starting his college playing career as a defensive end/kicker at Xavier (Ohio), Quartaro transferred to Iowa and became the Hawkeyes' kicker for three seasons and earned his degree in 1977. He finished his career as Iowa's second all-time leading scorer and was named academic all-conference as a junior. Quartaro and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Andria and Tony.

SCOTT WALKER

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

establish unprecedented success in the classroom, further upholding the high academic standards of Rutgers University. The team has stood as a pillar for great achievement both on the field and in the classroom.

In the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR) report, Rutgers saw 13 teams either tie or set program records for their multiyear scores, with a school-record eight earning public recognition from the NCAA. Additionally, 19 of 22 programs posted multiyear APR scores of 980 or better, 14 had scores of 990 or above, and nine programs had multiyear scores of 995 or better. All Rutgers University athletic programs are well above the 930 benchmark required by the NCAA.

Rutgers has had two National Football Foundation Scholar Athletes in Brian Leonard and Brandon Renkart during Walker's tenure. Leonard received the prestigious Draddy Trophy, recognized as the "Academic Heisman," in 2006.

Prior to his tenure at Rutgers, Walker spent 17 years as an assistant football coach. His career included stints at Texas, Purdue, Iowa, Maine, Georgia Tech and Cornell. He also served three years as the Director of Football Academics at Georgia Tech.

Walker graduated from Princeton in 1984 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in geology. During his time at Princeton, he worked as the freshman defensive ends coach from 1982-84. In addition to attending college in New Jersey, Walker spent 15 years recruiting the New Jersey metropolitan area for various universities during his coaching career.

Scott and his wife, Michelle, have a son, Kyle, who was a four-year letterwinner on the baseball team at Rutgers.

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 120 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse over the last four years. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century. In January 2014, Michigan State defeated Stanford in the 100th Rose Bowl Game.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of five men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971 and current commissioner James E. Delany in 1989.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 1,500 events across all platforms each year. BTN is in more than 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada via the nation's major cable, satellite and telco providers and more than 300 additional cable operators across the country. BTN2Go is the digital extension of BTN, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets and also is accessible outside the U.S., Canada and the Caribbean via BTN2Go International.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gave the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition. On June 17, 2015, the conference announced that Johns Hopkins was accepted as a sport affiliate member for women's lacrosse beginning with the 2016-17 academic year. On March 23, 2016, the conference announced that Notre Dame will join the Big Ten for men's ice hockey beginning with the 2017-18 academic year.

Since opening in the fall of 2013, the Big Ten conference center hosts more than 300 meetings annually for member institutions, Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly CIC) related committees and coaches' groups. The headquarters also features an interactive digital museum - the Big Ten Experience - which brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life. For more information on the Big Ten Experience, go to bigten.org.

In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C.

Delany and his staff work to meet the educational needs of students competing in intercollegiate athletics to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 28 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 1,400 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel and services media and fans interest for information on the Big Ten.

More than 120 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

SEASON REVIEW

GAME 1: NO. 8/7 WASHINGTON 30, RUTGERS 14

Sept. 1, 2017 • Piscataway, N.J.

High Point Solutions Stadium • 46,093

	1	2	3	4	Score
Washington (1-0)	3	7	10	10	30
Rutgers (0-1)	7	0	0	7	14

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers football opened its 2017 season against No. 8/7 Washington on Friday night at High Point Solutions Stadium. Despite the close margin in the first half of the contest thanks to the Scarlet Knights' hot start, the Huskies took the lead in the second quarter en route to a 30-14 win in both teams' season opener.

Rutgers' first strike came from fifth-year senior wide receiver Janarion Grant registering a three-yard touchdown grab from classmate and quarterback Kyle Bolin to give RU a 7-0 lead with 7:08 remaining in the first quarter. However, Washington responded with 27 unanswered points spanning into the fourth quarter to claim the advantage. An RU touchdown from Bolin to sophomore wide receiver Dacoven Bailey in the fourth frame would break up the surge, but it was not enough to erase the deficit.

Bolin finished his first game "On the Banks" with a pair of touchdown passes on 178 yards (24-of-34 passing), along with two interceptions. Fifth-year senior running back Gus Edwards also made his Rutgers debut with 79 yards on 24 rushes, with his highlight coming on a 13-yard scamper in the second quarter. Bailey totaled three catches for 42 yards receiving to go with his score, while fifth-year senior Damon Mitchell paced the wideouts with 46 yards on four receptions.

Rutgers held margins of victory in first downs (19-17), rushing yards (131-84), time of possession (38:09-21:51) and third-down conversions (47%-27%).

Rutgers (1-2)	7	27	17	14	65

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Fueled by four rushing touchdowns from true freshman quarterback Johnathan Lewis, Rutgers football dominated Morgan State in a 65-0 shutout on Saturday afternoon at High Point Solutions Stadium in front of 39,892 fans. It was the largest shutout by RU since 1978.

Overall, Lewis was responsible for five RU touchdowns, including four rushing and one passing. It marked the most rushing touchdowns for a quarterback during a single game in school history and the second time a true freshman ran for four scores.

Freshman running back Raheem Blackshear also posted two rushing touchdowns, pacing the offense with 132 all-purpose yards, which included 102 rushing yards on 14 carries. Senior running back Robert Martin contributed a rushing touchdown of his own, while tight ends Jerome Washington and Nakia Griffin-Stewart each posted a TD grab to wrap up the RU scorers.

Fifth-year senior quarterback Kyle Bolin posted his third start for RU, recording 140 yards and a touchdown on 11-of-17 passes.

Fifth-year senior defensive end Darnell Davis led the defense with 10 total tackles, along with a sack and a forced fumble. Freshman wide receiver Hunter Hayek registered a blocked punt, marking RU's second blocked kick of the season and 49th dating back to 2009, which leads the nation.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – In a game that saw three lead changes, Rutgers football was edged by Eastern Michigan by a score of 16-13 on Saturday afternoon at High Point Solutions Stadium.

Fifth-year senior wide receiver Janarion Grant led the Scarlet Knights with 157 all-purpose yards, including nine receptions for 91 yards. Senior running back Robert Martin paced the team with 68 rushing yards on 13 carries, while fifth-year senior quarterback Kyle Bolin registered his second start for Rutgers and recorded 198 yards passing on 17 completions.

Fifth-year senior running back Gus Edwards added his first touchdown as a Scarlet Knight, adding 56 yards on the ground. Fifth-year senior kicker Andrew Harte contributed two field goals in the contest.

Defensively, fifth-year senior defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph registered his second career field goal block, marking RU's 48th blocked kick since 2009. Joseph also forced an EMU fumble to set up a scoring drive for the Scarlet Knights. Juniors Saquan Hampton, Trevor Morris and Deonte Roberts all recorded eight tackles.

Rutgers won the time of possession battle (30:23-29:37) in the loss, and also held margins of victory in points off turnovers (7-0).

LINCOLN, Neb. – Despite two forced turnovers, Rutgers football fell to Nebraska in its Big Ten Conference opener, 27-17, in front of a crowd of 89,775 Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

The Scarlet Knight defense held the Cornhuskers to just 109 yards passing. Junior defensive backs Blessuan Austin and Kiy Hester each had an interception, as Hester's went 33 yards for a pick-six to open the second half. Sophomore linebacker Trevor Morris led the unit with 12 tackles.

Fifth-year senior running back Gus Edwards produced 60 total yards of offense, including a touchdown run in the first quarter. Classmate quarterback Kyle Bolin completed 15 passes to eight different receivers in the contest and finished with 126 yards through the air.

RU wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as Edwards capped a game-opening 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive with a two-yard touchdown run to go up, 7-0, at 10:28 mark in the first quarter. Bolin was 5-of-7 passing for 65 yards on the drive, as five different Scarlet Knights – Edwards, sophomore Dacoven Bailey, freshman Hunter Hayek, fifth-year senior Damon Mitchell and junior Jerome Washington – recorded a catch during the series.

Washington kept the opening drive alive with an acrobatic catch on third-and-nine, as the tight end hauled in a reception on the backside of his legs to keep the ball in play.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers football fell to No. 11 Ohio State, 56-0, on Saturday night at High Point Solutions Stadium.

Despite Rutgers holding Ohio State to a three-and-out on its opening drive, the Buckeyes would score on their following drive for a 7-0 lead five minutes into the contest. As the RU offense was unable to counter, the Scarlet Knights kept it a one-possession game at the end of the opening stanza. However, OSU would break away on the scoreboard with four touchdowns in the second quarter and three more across the second half for the game's final margin.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers football posted its second-straight Big Ten win with a 14-12 victory over Purdue on Saturday at High Point Solutions Stadium. The Scarlet Knights recorded back-to-back Big Ten victories for the first time since joining the league in 2014.

Fueled by touchdowns from fifth-year senior Gus Edwards and freshman Raheem Blackshear, RU held a 14-6 lead in the fourth quarter. The Boilermakers scored with 25 seconds remaining, but the Scarlet Knights denied the two-point conversion attempt to seal the win. The 12 points were the fewest allowed by Rutgers in a Big Ten contest.

Junior quarterback Giovanni Rescigno made his second start of the season and totaled 87 passing yards, adding the sixth passing touchdown of his career. Edwards registered a 74-yard rushing touchdown to tie his career long on the first offensive series of the game, finishing with a team-high 94 yards on the ground. Blackshear joined in with the first receiving touchdown of his career on a 35-yard catch in the third quarter.

Defensively, Rutgers forced Purdue to 3-of-15 on third down conversions and 1-of-4 on fourth down. Junior linebacker Trevor Morris led the Scarlet Knights with 12 total tackles. Sophomore defensive backs K.J. Gray (10 tackles) and Damon Hayes added an interception each in the win.

CHAMPAIGN, ILL. – Behind 274 rushing yards and five touchdowns on the ground, Rutgers football defeated Illinois, 35-24, Saturday afternoon at Memorial Stadium. Four different running backs found the end zone in the win, as the rushing total was the most for the Scarlet Knights in a Big Ten game since joining the conference in 2014.

Fifth-year senior Gus Edwards led RU with 91 rushing yards and two touchdowns, while freshman Raheem Blackshear contributed 87 yards rushing and a 19-yard score. Senior backs Josh Hicks and Robert Martin also contributed touchdowns for Rutgers.

In his first start of the season and sixth of his career, junior quarterback Giovanni Rescigno produced 41 yards on the ground and another 89 through the air.

The Scarlet Knights held the Fighting Illini to just 86 yards rushing in the game and forced two interceptions. Sophomore Jawuan Harris, who made his first start at safety in his collegiate career, led the team with 11 tackles, an interception and a forced fumble. Linebackers Trevor Morris and Deonte Roberts each contributed nine stops, while senior defensive tackle Sebastian Joseph added a solo sack.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. – Rutgers football fell to RV/25 Michigan, 35-14, in front of a crowd of 111,213 Saturday afternoon at Michigan Stadium.

The Scarlet Knight defense held the Wolverines to just 137 passing yards and won the turnover battle, 1-0, thanks to a first-quarter interception by sophomore Jawuan Harris. On offense, fifth-year senior Janarion Grant led RU with 71 rushing yards and a touchdown, while fifth-year senior Gus Edwards also added a score.

The Rutgers defense held its own in the first quarter, keeping UM out of the end zone in the first 15 minutes of play. Harris recorded his second interception of the season when he picked off Michigan's John O'Korn at the 6:48 mark in the opening quarter, undercutting the route for the turnover.

After the Wolverines scored the first touchdown of the contest, Grant sparked the offense in the second quarter, as he took a direct snap 65 yards for a score with 10:52 left in the first half. Grant's longest run of his career tied the score at 7-7.

Michigan responded with 14-straight points to take a 21-7 lead into the locker room.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – With less than eight minutes to go in the fourth quarter and a tie score, Rutgers junior quarterback Giovanni Rescigno connected with fifth-year senior running back Gus Edwards for a 23-yard touchdown to lift the Scarlet Knights to a 31-24 victory over Maryland on Saturday evening at High Point Solutions Stadium. It was the third win in the last four outings for RU.

Maryland (4-5, 2-4) kicked off the back-and-forth battle with a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter. Rutgers (4-5, 3-3) responded with 17 consecutive points in the second quarter for a 17-7 lead. The Terrapins added a touchdown with a little over a minute until halftime, bringing the Scarlet Knight lead to 17-14 at the break.

UMD reclaimed the advantage, 24-17, with a touchdown and field goal in the third quarter. However, RU tied things up, 24-24, with a touchdown of its own to open the fourth, going on to take the lead back for good later in the frame.

Rescigno was responsible for two touchdowns, including his first rushing touchdown of the season. Edwards registered the first receiving touchdown of his career, while leading RU with 109 rushing yards. Senior running back Robert Martin also contributed a rushing score of his own.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – Rutgers football took a 6-0 lead with 11:16 remaining in the second quarter, but No. 14 Penn State scored five-straight touchdowns to claim a 35-6 victory in a Big Ten East matchup on Saturday at Beaver Stadium. The Scarlet Knights entered the contest having won three of their previous four conference games.

Senior Robert Martin, a native of Harrisburg, Pa., picked up 53 rushing yards, while fifth-year senior Gus Edwards added 43 yards on the ground. Junior Giovanni Rescigno completed seven passes and ran for a team-high 57 yards in his fifth start of the season. Defensively, junior Deonte Roberts collected nine tackles.

As a team, the Scarlet Knights out-rushed the Nittany Lions, 157-90. In addition, the offense permitted only one sack, making it one or less sacks allowed in 9-of-10 games this season.

Rutgers won the opening coin toss and elected to defer the option until the start of the second half, with the kickoff unit taking the field first. Freshman Justin Davidoviz lofted the opening boot into free space around the 15-yard line that landed untouched. Being a live ball, redshirt freshman Lawrence Stevens recovered the football to give the Scarlet Knights possession. That would lead to a 33-yard field goal by fifth-year senior Andrew Harte. Harte added another field goal in the second quarter.

ROBERT L. BARCHI

PRESIDENT OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

Robert Barchi is the 20th president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, a 69,000-student comprehensive research institution.

Appointed in 2012, President Barchi is leading Rutgers at one of the most exciting moments of its more than 250-year history. In 2013 he guided the formation of Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences, a major new division of the university established when, through restructuring legislation signed by then-Governor Chris Christie, most units of the former University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey were integrated into Rutgers.

President Barchi led development of an ambitious university-wide strategic plan, the first at Rutgers in nearly 20 years, and a corresponding physical master plan. He helped lead Rutgers into the Big Ten Athletic Conference, a group of similarly sized leading research institutions, and the conference's academic consortium, the Big Ten Academic Alliance. Working closely with Rutgers alumni and friends, he successfully completed the university's first billion-dollar capital campaign. And, after helping advocate for passage of a statewide bond referendum for higher education construction, Dr. Barchi has overseen a capital program totaling $2 billion in planning, design, and construction of academic and student-services facilities across all Rutgers locations, including the RWJBarnabas Health Athletic Performance Center, scheduled for completion in 2019.

From 2004 to 2012, Dr. Barchi served as president of Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia, nationally regarded as a top university dedicated to health sciences education and research. Prior to Jefferson, he was provost and chief academic officer of the University of Pennsylvania, an Ivy League institution founded in 1740. There, he had responsibility for Penn's 12 schools, all academic programs, athletics, students, and faculty.

Dr. Barchi was born in Philadelphia but spent his formative years not far from Rutgers in Westfield, N.J. He received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Georgetown University, and Ph.D. and M.D. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania. He completed specialty training at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania and holds board certification in neurology. Throughout his career, Dr. Barchi has been active as a teacher and as an NIH-funded researcher in the fields of neuroscience and neurology, and he has published extensively in his field. He was elected to the National Academy of Medicine in recognition of his pioneering research on the structure and function of voltage-gated ion channels in nerve and muscle, and on the role these critical molecules can play in human disease. He was also elected to the American Society for Clinical Investigation and the Association of American Physicians and named a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Neurological Association, and the American Academy of Neurology.

In 1972, Dr. Barchi began his academic career as a faculty member at Penn. Within a decade, he rose to become the David Mahoney Professor of Neurological Sciences. Between 1983 and 1996, he served as director of the Mahoney Institute of Neurological Sciences—an interdisciplinary, universitywide entity that he expanded to become the focus for Penn's growth in neuroscience, encompassing the intellectual activities of more than 120 faculty members. Dr. Barchi founded the Department of Neuroscience at Penn and served as its first chair; he also served as chair of the Department of Neurology. He was named the Fairhill Professor in 2002, a position that he still holds in emeritus status.

The University of Pennsylvania named Dr. Barchi as its provost and chief academic officer in 1999, and he served in this capacity until 2004. As provost, Dr. Barchi had responsibility for the university's 12 schools and their academic programs and budgets and Penn's intercollegiate athletics program, as well as for Penn's students and faculty. During his tenure, he worked with president Judith Rodin to reassert the primacy of the academic mission in the direction of the university. He recruited new leadership to nine of the 12 schools at Penn and established a number of universitywide interdisciplinary educational and research institutes. He also led the university through a comprehensive strategic planning process.

As president of Thomas Jefferson University, Dr. Barchi oversaw a period of tremendous growth. The university established three new schools—including the Jefferson School of Pharmacy, which graduated its first class in May 2012, and the Jefferson School of Population Health, the only school in the nation to offer a master's degree in chronic care management. Overall student enrollment increased by 51 percent and annual degrees awarded rose by 54 percent. Dr. Barchi also expanded the reach of the campus, inaugurating the Partnership in Healthcare Education, an academic affiliation with the University of Delaware that offers dual-degree programs between the two institutions.

Other accomplishments at Jefferson include successful implementation of an ambitious strategic plan that integrated the university's clinical, education, and research missions; a comprehensive facilities master plan that supports those missions; and a major fundraising campaign that provides the resources necessary for success. During Dr. Barchi's tenure, Jefferson established 22 new endowed professorships and 50 endowed scholarships, helping to ensure a healthy and diverse community of faculty and students. The university surpassed $300 million in fundraising under his leadership, twice the amount raised during the preceding eight-year period.

During his presidency, Dr. Barchi also oversaw the transformation of Jefferson's urban environment into a vibrant university campus. A coordinated construction program, coupled with improved landscape design and signage, helped provide visitors and the Jefferson community a sense of place and connectedness to the compact urban campus in the heart of the city's historic district.

Dr. Barchi is married to Francis Harper Barchi, a faculty member in the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy at Rutgers. Before coming to Rutgers, she was a senior fellow in the Center for Bioethics at the University of Pennsylvania, where she was engaged in education and research activities relating to international research ethics. Francis Barchi holds a Ph.D. in social welfare, a master's in bioethics, and a master's in nonprofit leadership from the University of Pennsylvania, as well as a bachelor's degree from Smith College. She is the former executive vice president of the Dana Foundation in New York, a post she assumed following a 20-year span as president of her own company, which provided protocol and strategic communication services for international clients. Francis Barchi's research focuses on the social and behavioral factors that influence women's health in southern Africa. In 2009, she completed the first major quantitative study on women's autonomy and gender-based violence in Botswana, and she is the principal investigator on a study in that country examining the extent to which women's understanding of HPV and cervical cancer influences their decision-making about prevention and treatment. She is currently part of a team responsible for ethics training of health professionals in Botswana, Tanzania, and Guatemala.

As an avocation, President Barchi is an expert in the history and mechanical development of clocks and watches. In addition to collecting and conserving examples of these timepieces from the 17th and 18th centuries, he designs and constructs his own precision clocks in his basement machine shop.

The Barchis, who have four adult children and one dog, spend their leisure time at their home in coastal Maine where they are avid boaters and hikers.

PAT HOBBS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

of the Gary and Barbara Rodkin Center for Academic Success. The building to be constructed on the Busch Campus will consolidate all academic support services for Athletics in a single building. The Center will also house the Rutgers Leadership Academy, training facilities for the men's and women's soccer and lacrosse programs and offices for athletics' administration.

The 2017-18 athletics season began with a ribbon-cutting ceremony to dedicate the Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex, a state-of-the-art facility among the best in the nation, on August 6. The privately-funded Complex includes Kentucky bluegrass fields, a FieldTurf surface, high-powered Musco LED lighting, permanent 54-foot film towers, scoreboards and an LED videoboard that augments the fan experience on gameday. The Complex was the latest privately-funded facility to open under Hobbs, following the Fred Hill Training Complex, the Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, the Druskin Strength and Conditioning Center and the Sudydam basketball locker room.

Much of the capital project success can be credited to "R B1G Build," a comprehensive campaign launched on Jan. 20, 2016 to raise $100 million for new or upgraded facilities. The initiative raised $93,655,543, in both public and private support, from 3,879 donors as of June 1, 2018. In 2017, RFund secured $30 million in new gifts and pledges to surpass its previous record of $28.9 million achieved in fiscal year 2016.

The transformation under Hobbs' leadership has been significant and unmistakable. Just eight days after his hire, he announced Chris Ash as the 30th head coach in the 146-year history of the football program. Three months later, he tabbed Steve Pikiell as the 19th head coach in Rutgers men's basketball history. Hobbs has also welcomed gymnastics head coach Umme Salim-Beasley, softball head coach Kristen Butler, rowing head coach Justin Price, diving head coach Fred Woofruff and swimming head coach John Maccoll to "The Banks."

The restructuring of athletics leadership under Hobbs has enhanced the student-athlete experience, elevated communication, improved resource allocation and enriched customer service. Rutgers Athletics appointed its first full-time nutrition staff, welcomed Yvette Rooks, M.D., as Chief Medical Officer, and named Michael Szul and Rick Thorpe Senior Associate AD for Finance, Administration and Planning, and Senior Associate AD for External Affairs and Strategic Communications, respectively. Most recently, the Scarlet Knights appointed Carly Northup Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development.

Hobbs shepherded the partnership between Rutgers Athletics and adidas, which officially began on July 1, 2017, and designated the Portland-based company as the official athletic footwear, apparel and accessory brand of the Scarlet Knights through the 2023-24 season. Via the agreement, Rutgers will receive adidas' product & marketing expertise and the two will collaborate on marketing opportunities and the development and enhancement of the licensed retail landscape on campus.

Rutgers also launched a new ScarletKnights.com with an emphasis on mobile connectivity and streamlined navigation. The site enables Rutgers fans instant access to gameday information, video content and resulted in an additional 200,000 page views per month.

Student-athletes have consistently excelled, both on the field and in the classroom, under Hobbs' leadership. In 2017-18, Rutgers produced 14 All-Americans, 40 All Big-Ten selections/place winners, three Big Ten Position Players of the Year and one Big Ten Freshman of the Year, while ten were selected in major professional league drafts. A school record-tying eight programs earned public recognition from the NCAA for their multiyear Academic Progress Rate (APR). The average multi-year APR rate for Rutgers athletic programs increased to 991, eight points above the NCAA average rate of 983. In addition, five programs produced perfect scores of 100, while 16 out of 20 teams earned marks above 80 percent in the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) report. Athletics posted an overall score of 85, its ninth consecutive year with a score of 84 or above.

Hobbs moved south down the New Jersey Turnpike after notable achievements at Seton Hall University. He served as Dean at the Seton Hall School of Law from 1999 to 2015 and oversaw the Department of Athletics for the Pirates from 2009 to 2011.

Prior to joining Rutgers, Hobbs also worked for New Jersey Governor Chris Christie. In April 2014, he was appointed Ombudsman to the Office of the Governor, serving as a resource for whistleblowers within the Office. He also oversaw ethics training and guidance to the 140 employees in the Office of the Governor.

As the Interim Director of Athletics at Seton Hall, Hobbs assumed supervision of the department and led searches for men's and women's basketball head coaches. He also conducted the search for and hiring of a permanent athletic director and added the sport of women's golf, which earned two Big East titles in the last five years. Another major accomplishment was negotiating a contract with the Prudential Center as a home site for men's basketball games.

Hobbs joined the Seton Hall Law faculty in 1990 with a specialty in tax law; he became Associate Dean for Finance in 1995 and was named Dean in 1999. In his years as Dean, Hobbs shepherded the Law School through a series of groundbreaking initiatives that raised Seton Hall Law to unprecedented prominence. The school was the fastest-rising law school in the U.S. News & World Report ranking over the past decade. One of the highlights includes the Health Law program, which is consistently ranked among the top 10 nationally. Seton Hall Law boasts a faculty that is world-renowned in such diverse areas as intellectual property, social justice, corporate bankruptcy, national security policy and employment law.

Hobbs was influential in fundraising at Seton Hall Law by spearheading the $25 million plus campaign, Seton Hall Law Rising, the school's largest fundraising initiative. Part of the success stemmed from revitalizing alumni support with over 70 percent contributing during the campaign.

During his tenure, Hobbs established several centers of excellence: The Center for Health & Pharmaceutical Law & Policy; the Center for Policy and Research; and the Gibbons Institute of Law, Science & Technology. Under his leadership, Seton Hall Law achieved worldwide prominence through a series of groundbreaking initiatives emanating from the school's social justice mission.

Hobbs advocated for the growth of the Seton Hall Law Center for Social Justice, offering clinical programs with students and professors taking on cases addressing predatory lending, domestic violence, international human rights, and education and housing policy reform.

In 2006, Seton Hall became the education partner of the New Jersey Law and Education Empowerment Project (NJ LEEP). The mission of the Project is to introduce economically disadvantaged students from 8th to 12th grade to the legal profession and to strengthen their academic skills. Since the graduation of the first NJ LEEP cohort in 2011, the program has achieved a 100 percent college acceptance rate among its participants, with several admitted to the nation's top-tier universities.

The Garden State product has been dedicated to fostering greater diversity in the legal profession. In 2008, he formed the Dean's Diversity Council, comprising faculty, students, alumni and administration working in concert to enhance the Law School's inclusive environment. In 2012, Professor Hobbs was honored by the Thurgood Marshall College Fund with its Excellence Award for his work on behalf of diversity within the legal profession and for "embodying Justice Thurgood Marshall's commitment to justice, civil rights and education."

Hobbs is a former member of the Standards Review Committee of the American Bar Association, Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar and has twice chaired the Law School Development Committee. He also serves as a member of the boards of the Newark Alliance and Newark Beth Israel Medical Center. Additionally, he served as a member of the Advisory Board of Lexis-Nexis, the New Jersey Commission of Professionalism and the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education. In 2004, he served as Chair of the Newark, New Jersey Mayor's Blue Ribbon Commission on the Downtown Core Redevelopment, a key initiative driving Newark's resurgence and which led the way for the construction of the Prudential Center entertainment arena.

A member of the New Jersey State Commission of Investigation from 2004-14, Hobbs chaired the Commission for the last four years of his tenure. The independent, bipartisan law enforcement body originally conceived in 1968 as a fact-finding agency whose mission is to expose organized crime, public corruption, and waste and to recommend reforms in the service of the citizens of New Jersey.

Prior to joining Seton Hall Law, Hobbs was a tax attorney with the law firm of Shanley & Fisher in Roseland, N.J. He received his B.A. in accounting, magna cum laude, from Seton Hall University, his J.D. from the University of North Carolina and his LL.M. (in taxation) from New York University.

Hobbs, 58, is the proud father of three children and resides in Basking Ridge, N.J.

HISTORY & TRADITION

THE FIRST FOOTBALL GAME

Rutgers and Princeton played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.

The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.

At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 competitors and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarves which they converted into turbans.

Events leading up to the game were described by John W. Herbert, Rutgers '72, who was one of the players: "To appreciate this game to the fullest you must know something of its background," Herbert wrote in 1933. "The two colleges were, and still are, of course, about 20 miles apart. The rivalry between them was intense. For years each had striven for possession of an old Revolutionary cannon, making night forays and lugging it back and forth time and again. Not long before the first football game, the canny Princetonians had settled this competition in their own favor by ignominiously sinking the gun in several feet of concrete. In addition to this, I regret to report, Princeton had beaten Rutgers in baseball by the harrowing score of 40-2. Rutgers longed for a chance to square things."

A challenge for the game was issued by Rutgers. Three games were to be played that year. The first, played at New Brunswick, was won by Rutgers. Princeton won the second game, but cries of "over-emphasis" prevented the third game in football's first year when faculties of both institutions protested on the grounds that the games were interfering with student studies. An analytical account of the game appeared in the November, 1869 issue of the Targum, Rutgers' undergraduate newspaper.

"To describe the varying fortunes of the match, game by game, would be a waste of labor for every game was like the one before," wrote the student reporter. "There was the same headlong running, wild shouting, and frantic kicking.

"To sum up, Princeton had the most muscle, but didn't kick very well, and wanted organization. They evidently don't like to kick the ball on the ground. Our men, on the other hand, though comparatively weak, ran well, and kicked well throughout. But their great point was the organization, for which great praise is due to the captain. The right men were always in the right place."

One of the Princeton players, William Preston Lane, in 1933 contended in a newspaper interview that Rutgers "ran us Princeton men out of town. I never found out why they did that," he related. "But we don't ask any questions. When we saw them coming after us, we ran to the outskirts of New Brunswick and got into our carriages and wagons and went away as fast as we could."

Lane's contention is refuted in the Targum account. "After the match the players had an amicable 'feed together,'" the paper reported. "At 8 o'clock our guests went home, in high good spirits, thirsting to beat us next time, if they can."

Regardless of what actually happened after the first game, football was here to stay. Rutgers got Columbia University started in the grid sport the following season and in a few years most of the colleges and universities in the East were represented on the gridiron.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Parts of this article were written by John Bruns, former long-time sports writer for the Home News and the Easton Times-Express.

When Rutgers defeated Princeton in 1869, the setting was quite different than it is today. The game was contested on a field along College Avenue in New Brunswick. There were not tens of thousands of cheering fans in a multi-million dollar stadium. There was no manicured grass field or electronic scoreboard. There was no elaborate athletic equipment or television cameras. But on that fall day in 1869, those students established a tradition of quality football programs, competitiveness and school spirit that continues at Rutgers, the birthplace of intercollegiate football.

Now 148 years later entering the 2017 season, Rutgers has had many historical moments, outstanding athletes and memorable triumphs over the years.

However, those historic moments were difficult to predict during the early years when intercollegiate football scheduling was inconsistent. For example, Rutgers won six of 10 games in 1882, but played only one game in 1885. Similarly, the Scarlet Knights went 8-6 in 1891, but two years later played only four games. By the early 1900s, scheduling had become more consistent and football became more popular across the country.

The eight wins of 1891 were not matched until Rutgers went 8-1 in 1947 with one of the most successful teams of coach Harvey Harman in the Golden Era immediately following World War II. That team, quarterbacked by Frank Burns, who would later become Rutgers' most successful coach, lost its opener to Columbia and then swept through eight-straight opponents.

In 1913, coach George Foster Sanford began a tradition of success among Rutgers coaches in their inaugural year by leading his team to a 6-3 mark. He then flirted with two perfect seasons, improving the team to 7-1 in 1915 and 7-1-1 in 1917.

Those two seasons, which featured All-American Paul Robeson, were among Rutgers' best. The Scarlet Knights outscored opponents by an average of 44-3 in 1915 and 33-2 in 1917. Sanford, a member of Rutgers' Hall of Fame, also helped to introduce Rutgers to the New York metropolitan area, playing games at the Polo Grounds against teams like Notre Dame, Nebraska, Louisiana State and West Virginia. A few years later, in 1924, two-time All-America end and fullback Homer Hazel helped coach John Wallace continue the tradition of first-year coaching success, as Rutgers posted a 7-1-1 mark.

Harvey Harman also had a successful first season, going 7-1 in 1938, the year Rutgers dedicated the original Rutgers Stadium. Rutgers won the dedication game, 20-18, over Princeton.

Harman, however, was replaced by former coach Harry Rockafeller during World War II. His tenure included an 8-1 season in 1947 when Rutgers, dominated by WWII veterans, registered a combined record of 27-7 from 1945-48.

When John Steigman coached Rutgers from 1956-59, he brought back the single-wing formation to the Scarlet Knight offense, and led Rutgers to an 8-1 mark in 1958. The only loss of that season, 13-12 to the Quantico Marines, came when All-American tailback Billy Austin had to miss a game due to a broken hand.

Another first-year coach got off to an impressive start when John Bateman won 8-1 in 1960. That campaign was followed by Rutgers' first undefeated season in 1961, when the team went 9-0, capping the season with a fourth-quarter, 25-point comeback win over Columbia. That team included All-American center Alex Kroll, and was ranked 15th nationally. In his 11 seasons, Bateman led Rutgers to 73 wins in 124 games.

In 1973, Frank Burns took the reins of Rutgers football and became the most successful Rutgers coach ever by building teams recognized for fundamentals and defense. Burns himself was also known as a fierce linebacker and won the Most Valuable Player Award in the 1949 College All-Star game, when he made 17 tackles against the New York Giants. The Burns' defenses were led by linebackers Ed Steward, Jim Hughes, Jim Dumont and defensive end Nate Toran. Burns' first team went 6-5, while running back "JJ" Jennings rushed for 1,353 yards (third in Rutgers history) and 21 touchdowns (second).

Over the next five seasons, Burns' teams won at least seven games each season, including a five-season stretch from 1975-79 when Rutgers' winning percentage was .803 with a record of 45-11. The jewel in the crown of Burns' tenure as Rutgers' coach was the 1976 season, when the team was perfect at 11-0, establishing the best season ever at Rutgers. During Burns' 11 seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights won nearly two-thirds of their games (78-44). He also took Rutgers to its first bowl appearance – the Garden State Bowl – at Giants Stadium against Arizona State in 1978.

Doubtless, the biggest win of the Burns era was the 13-7 upset of Tennessee on November 3, 1979 in Knoxville. Burns called it "the greatest of my coaching career."

The following year, 1980, Rutgers had one of its great "near-misses" of its long history when the Scarlet bowed, 17-13, to a highly-favored Alabama team coached by Bear Bryant at Giants Stadium. The gracious Bryant said, "We didn't beat Rutgers. All I can say is we won."

In 1984 when Dick Anderson was named head coach, a renewed commitment to football at Rutgers was backed by a $3 million state-funded package. Those funds helped finance the artificial surface practice fields, the practice "Bubble" and the Hale Center, which includes locker rooms, offices, a weight-training area and medical facilities for the football team.

Anderson won seven of 10 games in his inaugural season. Other highlights of his years at Rutgers include upset wins over such nationally-ranked teams as Penn State and Michigan State, and a nationally-televised victory over Northwestern in the program's 1,000th game. Anderson's teams produced some of the most exciting players in Rutgers history, including record-breaking passer Scott Erney, career tackles leader

FRANK BURNS, 1961

Tyrone Stowe (533 from 1983-86) and football/baseball star Eric Young. Anderson's last game at Rutgers was a memorable one. It was the 1989 Emerald Isle Classic versus Pittsburgh in Dublin, Ireland, the first time a Rutgers team played overseas.

Doug Graber became the Scarlet Knights' 23rd coach in 1990 and placed an emphasis on recruiting the best talent in the state of New Jersey. His first recruiting class included three first team all-state selections and two second-team All-State selections among the 12 recruits from New Jersey.

Another major boost for Rutgers came in 1991 when Rutgers joined the Big East Conference and won its first league game over Boston College, 20-13. The team went 13-9 in its first two years in the league, including a 4-2 mark in 1992.

The 1994 season celebrated not only the 125 years of college football, but also the return of the newly-renovated and expanded Rutgers Stadium. The return was a welcomed one. Rutgers teams have been at their best at the stadium, compiling a 237-120-4 (.662) record there since 1938. The new stadium has been quite a different setting than that of the first college football game played 130 years ago, as the Scarlet Knights are playing for their own place in history as they continue the college football tradition that was born "On the Banks of the Old Raritan."

1998 Big East Coach of the Year Terry Shea concluded his tenure in 2000, as the Scarlet Knights opted to take the program in a different direction for the 2001 season. On Dec. 1, 2000, Director of Athletics Bob Mulcahy introduced the newest coach in the storied history of Rutgers football - Greg Schiano. Schiano's first three recruiting classes rejuvenated the football program. In 2003, the team closed strong, upsetting Syracuse, 24-7, in the season finale. In 2004, before the largest crowd ever at the time at Rutgers Stadium (42,612), the Scarlet Knights defeated Michigan State, 19-14.

In 2005, Schiano coached Rutgers to its best record in over a decade, 7-5, and its first bowl bid since 1978. In a Wild West shootout staged at Chase Field in Phoenix, Rutgers fell just short, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl Dec. 27.

In 2006 Schiano was named the National Coach of the Year and Big East Coach of the Year, as the Scarlet Knights earned their first national top-10 ranking in 2006 and won 11 games for the second time in school history. The campaign included a thrilling win 28-25 over No. 3/4 Louisville in front of a Thursday night national audience on ESPN. The comeback victory, with RU overcoming an 18-point deficit, became one of the turning points in modern Rutgers history as fans stormed the field to ignite "Pandemonium in Piscataway." Rutgers ended the season with a ranking of No. 12 in the national polls.

The success Rutgers achieved on the field was something Schiano envisioned from the first day he became the leader of the Scarlet Knights. At his introductory press conference, Schiano stated, "We're going to win at Rutgers and we're going to do it the right way." The 2006 season was complete with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, the first bowl championship in school history. In addition, Brian Leonard was the recipient of the Draddy Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman.

The program won eight more games in 2007, including the highest ranked win in program history with a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season concluded with a dominating 52-30 victory over Ball State at the International Bowl in Toronto. Ray Rice ran for a school-record 280 rushing yards on the day to bring his career total to 4,926, a program high. An All-America pick and Heisman Trophy candidate, the running back also set the Scarlet Knight standards for attempts (910), touchdowns (49) and 100-yard games (25).

The 2008 campaign for the Scarlet Knights started slowly, but the program relied on a strong foundation built by Schiano and together as a family Rutgers turned in seven consecutive victories to close out the season - culminating in a 29-23 victory over NC State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. In 2009, the Scarlet Knights saw a number of milestones set en route to a record of 9-4, including a 45-24 victory over UCF in the St. Petersburg Bowl.

Prior to Schiano's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights had never fielded a receiver who had gained 1,000 yards in a season. In 2009, Tim Brown became the fourth during his tenure to eclipse the mark. Brown also became the school's all-time leader in receiving touchdowns, passing RU's initial first round draft pick Kenny Britt. RU had two first round picks in 2010, with Anthony Davis being the highest pick in program history at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers. Devin McCourty was selected at No. 27 by the New England Patriots.

While the results on the field did not favor Rutgers in 2010, the world was introduced to Eric LeGrand. The junior defensive tackle suffered a spinal cord injury at MetLife Stadium Oct. 16 against Army, but he did not let the condition bring him down. LeGrand has become a public figure and has raised countless dollars towards spinal cord research. He became the first Scarlet Knight in the 144 years of the football program to have his number retired during halftime of the Sept. 14, 2013 game against Eastern Michigan.

Rutgers returned to a bowl game in 2011 with a trip to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. It was the second game of the season for the team at Yankee Stadium. The Scarlet Knights defeated Army during the regular season before beating Iowa State in the bowl game. Wide receiver Mohamed Sanu set the school record with 115 receptions on the season and was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

Following the season, head coach Greg Schiano took the head coaching job with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to end an 11-year tenure. Kyle Flood, who joined the program in 2005, was promoted from the staff to the lead position several days later.

Flood made an immediate impact on the Rutgers program with a successful first season, as he led the school to its first Big East Championship in 2012, ending with a 9-4 record and 5-2 record in the league. Flood was named the Big East Coach of the Year, an honor he shared with Louisville's Charlie Strong. Flood's nine regular season victories were the most by any first-year coach in Rutgers history, as eight players garnered All-Big East honors. Khaseem Greene totaled 136 tackles to earn Big East Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, in addition to All-America status. The defensive unit was among the best in school history, ranking fourth nationally in scoring defense, tied for ninth in turnovers gained and 10th in total defense.

Offensively, wide receiver Brandon Coleman established himself as one of the nation's premier deep threats by scoring 10 touchdowns during the season, tied for the most in school history. He would end up with 20 in his career, tied with Brown for the school record.

The year culminated with a trip to the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando to face Virginia Tech. However, the Scarlet Knights fell 13-10 in overtime. In the offseason, Rutgers had 12 players signed by NFL teams, with a school-record seven selected in the NFL Draft.

Rutgers came out of the gates in 2013 with a 4-1 start through September. Following a 52-51 loss in overtime at Fresno State, RU rattled off four straight wins. The winning streak was highlighted by a comeback win over Arkansas in the first visit by an SEC team to High Point Solutions Stadium. In its first American Athletic Conference game, Rutgers won in triple overtime at SMU, 55-52. Other conference victories included a late fourth quarter win with the hurry-up offense versus Temple and a postseason-clinching performance on Senior Night against USF. The 2013 New Era Pinstripe Bowl was the eighth bowl trip in nine years for Rutgers. The Scarlet Knights took on a ranked Notre Dame team inside a sold-out Yankee Stadium.

On July 1, 2014, Rutgers officially joined the Big Ten Conference to usher in a new era in its deep and storied history. Support for the program reached new levels for the Big Ten opener, as a stadium-record 53,774 fans packed High Point Solutions Stadium for a game against Penn State. The Scarlet Knights won their first Big Ten game Oct. 4 over Michigan, with Kemoko Turay leaping to block a potential go-ahead field goal to seal the win and set off a storming of the field. The first road win in conference play came at Maryland after RU erased a 35-10 deficit to win 41-38 in the biggest comeback in school history, which would be matched a year later at Indiana. Senior quarterback Gary Nova threw for 347 yards on a career-best 28 completions in the 2014 win versus the Terrapins, ending his career as the all-time touchdown passing leader (73).

The first year in the Big Ten would be capped off with a convincing 40-21 win over North Carolina in the Quick Lane Bowl, hosted by the Detroit Lions. The Scarlet Knights went 8-5 and earned the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy, emblematic of the top team in the East in the Bowl Subdivision.

In the second year in the Big Ten, Leonte Carroo closed his time as a Scarlet Knight with 10 receiving touchdowns to raise his school-record total to 29 over 31 games at the position. He averaged a score once every 4.2 receptions over his career, racking up 2,373 yards to join the list of standout wide receivers.

On Dec. 7, 2015, Chris Ash, a national-championship winning defensive coordinator at Ohio State, took over the program as the Scarlet Knights continue to establish a presence in the Big Ten and nationally.

After Ash's first season in Piscataway, Rutgers Athletics announced the opening of the Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex. The upgraded facility, part of the "R Big Ten Build" fundraising initiative, features two new grass fields; complete with rebuilt drainage and a new irrigation system as well as a state-of-the-art LED lighting system.

Rutgers showed marked improvement in year two under Ash, as the Scarlet Knights doubled their win total from the previous year and matched a program-best conference win total, which included Big Ten wins against Illinois, Maryland and Purdue.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

PAUL ROBESON

Paul Robeson played four years for the famous coach, G. Foster Sanford. Rutgers had a 22-6-3 record in that time. In 31 games, Rutgers scored 941 points to opponents' 191. Robeson was a powerful contributor to that record. Robeson was a two-time All-America end. Frank Menke named him All-America in 1917 and 1918. Walter Camp picked him in 1918. (Camp did not name an All-America team in 1917.) Following college, Robeson played three years as a pro - 1920 with Hammond, 1921 with Akron and 1922 with Milwaukee - in the American Professional Football League. He obtained his law degree in 1923. At Rutgers, Robeson was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was valedictorian of the class of 1919. He won the college oratorical contest four-straight years and gave the commencement address at graduation. Robeson won 12 letters in four sports - four in football, three each in basketball and baseball, and two in track. He stood 6-3 in height and his weight was listed at 191 in early years, at 215 his senior season. This man of many talents became an actor, singer and lecturer. He was on Broadway and in the movies. His rich basso made his signature song "Ol' Man River" a classic. He starred in plays, such as "The Emperor Jones," "Othello," "Showboat," as well as many others, in the U.S., Europe and Africa. In 1925 he made a recording that sold 55,000 copies in four months. In 1972 he received the Whitney Young Memorial Award. Ebony Magazine called him "one of the 10 most important black men in American history." Paul Robeson was born April 9, 1898, in Princeton, N.J. His father, Rev. William Robeson, had escaped slavery in 1860 in North Carolina at age 15. His mother, Maria Bustill, was a teacher. When Paul was a high school senior, he won the statewide academic test and received a scholarship to Rutgers. In 1915, he was the third African-American to enter Rutgers and the first to play football. He died January 23, 1976. After his tenure at Rutgers, he became an accomplished actor, singer and lecturer, and was commemorated on a US postal stamp.

ALEX KROLL

Alex Kroll, a consensus All-American center on Rutgers' first undefeated football team in 1961, is the Scarlet Knights' sixth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, as a part of the Class of 1997. Kroll, a 6-2, 228-pound center and linebacker, was a major force in Rutgers compiling a 17-1 record in his two years of play "On the Banks." In 1960, the Knights, under coach John Bateman, were 8-1 and followed up with the school's first undefeated campaign, going 9-0 in 1961. Team captain of the lauded 1961 squad, Kroll was a two-time first-team All-ECAC choice and won first-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, United Press International, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Look, and the American Football Coaches Association. Known as a "coach on the field," he was credited with making the quarterback sneak an offensive weapon as Rutgers scored seven touchdowns on that play in 1961 with Kroll clearing the way into the end zone for the signal-caller. He was also a first-team All-East choice by the AP in 1961 and played in the North-South game and the Senior Bowl. In 1960, he was an honorable mention All-American. Following his senior season, he was a second-round draft pick of the New York Titans, playing for one season in 1962. Kroll earned a BA in English Literature in 1962 and was a Henry Rutgers Scholar with a perfect grade point average in his major. He received a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1961. In 1986, he was awarded the Silver Anniversary Award from the National Collegiate Athletic Association for his collegiate achievements. Immediately following his last game with the Titans, he joined the workforce at Young & Rubicam, the world's largest independent advertising agency, as a copywriter. After a succession of writing and supervisory jobs in the creative department, he was named executive vice president and worldwide creative director in 1970. He was named president and chief operating officer in 1982 and, four years later, Kroll became chairman of Young & Rubicam. He is retired but still serves as Chairman Emeritus of Young & Rubicam.

HARVEY HARMAN

Few men loved the game with the fervor of Harvey Harman, a huge man with a grand smile and a fierce dedication to the sport. A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Harman received that group's Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, symbolic of outstanding service to the profession. It was not surprising that Harman achieved such acclaim, for he learned his football lessons from two of the game's mentors - Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland - while at Pittsburgh. Harman was a starting tackle for the Panthers before taking his first coaching assignment at Haverford. From there he moved on to Sewanee (the University of the South), Pennsylvania and Rutgers. It was at Rutgers that he had his greatest success, directing the Scarlet Knights to a 26-7-1 record before interrupting his career to serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Harman returned to Rutgers after the war and led the Scarlet Knights for another 10 seasons before accepting a position as Executive Director of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. In that capacity, Harman became known as the goodwill ambassador for football, continuing to serve the game until his death in 1969. His career record lists a slate of 140-104-7.

HOMER HAZEL

He parted his dark hair down the middle, in the fashion of the day, and his deep-set eyes glowed with a competitive fire. Homer Hazel, Rutgers' first Hall of Famer, was, without doubt, the most versatile player the Scarlet ever produced. A natural athlete, Hazel excelled in various sports and was most successful as a track and field star. His speed and quickness served him well, for he once recovered his own kickoff in the enemy end zone for a touchdown. Homer led Rutgers to identical 7-1-1 records in his final two seasons, earning All-America laurels in each. He was an end in 1923, when the only Scarlet loss was to West Virginia (27-7). He had Rutgers on the way to an unbeaten finish in 1924 - this time as a hard-hitting fullback - when Bucknell untracked the Scarlet in the final game of the season, 12-7. During the 1924 campaign, Homer Hazel established school records for most points after a touchdown and longest completed pass. He could do it all. Carrying 226 pounds over a 5-foot-11 frame, Homer lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track at Rutgers. He later served as Athletic Director, football and basketball coach at the University of Mississippi for more than five years. He was a golf pro for four years, and a labor relations manager for more than 20 years. Hazel won his first letter in football at Rutgers in 1916. He left school because of a lack of funds. Hazel worked at various jobs and, at age 28, played football again at Rutgers. Walter Camp named him All-America end in 1923, All-America fullback in 1924. Hazel was born June 2, 1895, and died February 3, 1968.

GEORGE LITTLE

A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, George Little opened his coaching career at the University of Cincinnati and produced a two-year record of 10-8-0 before moving up the road to Oxford, Ohio, home of the Miami Redskins, in 1916. There, Little brought the Redskins their first Conference Championship and a 7-0-1 mark. After service in World War I, Little returned to Miami and directed the Red and White to yet another league crown and a three-year post-war record of 20-3-1. He also coached the Miami basketball and track teams, claiming a conference crown in the latter sport. The 1922 and 1923 seasons found Little at Michigan under head coach Fielding Yost, the man he replaced in 1924. That year, Little's Wolverines were 6-2. The next season, Little was in Wisconsin as the new Athletic Director and head coach of the Badgers, and he led his charges to a two-year mark of 11-3-2. His teams displayed imagination and strength on offense, a unique ruggedness on defense. Little wound up his collegiate career as the Athletic Director at Rutgers, and then served as executive secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

GEORGE FOSTER SANFORD

At the entrance to Rutgers Stadium, inscribed upon a bronze plaque, is a tribute to George Sanford. It was financed and installed by his players, the men "...he inspired to deeds beyond themselves." Undoubtedly, Sanford was an inspirational leader of men, a gentleman who excelled as both player and coach. Sanford played center on the 1891 and 1892 Yale teams which held each of their 26 opponents scoreless. Though he was never chosen to an All-America team, a 1927 poll named him the all-time Yale center. Sanford began his coaching career at Columbia (1899-1901), called in to revive the football program which had been abandoned after the 1891 campaign. His 1899 team defeated Yale for the first time ever, and it was at Columbia that Sanford developed the famous "Flying Hurdle Play" which saw Harold Weekes catapulted over the line of scrimmage. Moving to Rutgers (1913-23), Sanford had marked success as his club rolled to a 56-32-5 record. He was hailed as a "miracle worker" in 1917, after his Rutgers team beat the heavily-favored Newport Naval Reserve All-Stars, 14-0. Between his teams at Columbia and Rutgers, Sanford devoted his energy toward a successful insurance brokerage business.

RUTGERS BOWL HISTORY

1978 GARDEN STATE BOWL

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. - In its first postseason action in program history, Rutgers faced Arizona State at Giants Stadium in the inaugural Garden State Bowl in 1978. The Scarlet Knights pulled ahead in the first half on a touchdown by David Dorn and field goal from Kennan Startzell to take a 10-0 lead. However, the Sun Devils closed the gap just before the end of the first half when Mark Malone found Bob Weathers in the end zone. In the third quarter, Arizona State claimed the lead with two Malone touchdown passes and in the final quarter added another score with a rushing TD to make the score 28-10. Ted Blackwell brought the Scarlet Knights to within 10 points with his five-yard rushing touchdown and successful two-point conversion. Rutgers had a final chance to take over the game when an offside kick came bouncing its way, but an offside flag on the kickoff erased the Scarlet Knights' good fortune. Arizona State tacked on two touchdowns to secure the 34-18 victory.

2005 INSIGHT BOWL

PHOENIX - Rutgers and Arizona State met for the second time in a bowl game, this time at Phoenix's Chase Field. The Scarlet Knights came up just short in the contest, losing 45-40 to the Sun Devils. RU scored the game's first touchdown on a pass from Ryan Hart to Clark Harris, but ASU quickly responded with a TD of its own, evening the game at 7-7. Both teams traded a number of scores, but back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter helped ASU to a 45-33 lead and the eventual victory. Rutgers engineered a 63-yard TD drive in the final 51 seconds, but it was not enough as the Sun Devils held on for the 45-40 win.

2006 TEXAS BOWL

HOUSTON - Rutgers' most memorable season ended with the program's biggest milestone - the first bowl victory in the history of Scarlet Knight football. Ray Rice rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown, while Tim Brown hauled in two TD passes as the 16th-ranked Scarlet Knights defeated Kansas State 37-10. Rice eventually went on to be named the Texas Bowl's Most Valuable Player. In the first quarter, Mike Teel hit Brown in the end zone on a 14-yard touchdown pass and the pair later connected, this time with a 49-yard strike to give Rutgers a 14-0 lead. Jeremy Ito sent a 37-yard field goal through the uprights with less than a minute remaining in the first half to take a 17-10 lead at halftime. In the opening minute of the third quarter, Rutgers extended its lead on an interception returned for a touchdown by Quintero Frierson. The Scarlet Knights scored the final 23 points of the game as Rice added a 46-yard touchdown run and Ito converted a pair of field goals to give RU the 37-10 victory.

2008 INTERNATIONAL BOWL

TORONTO - In its third-consecutive bowl game, Rutgers pulled off another program milestone with its second-straight postseason victory as the Scarlet Knights defeated Ball State, 52-30. Ray Rice had one of the finest individual outings in college football history, rushing for a career-high 280 yards and four touchdowns en route to being named the International Bowl's Most Valuable Player, his second-consecutive MVP honor in a bowl game. Rice's 280 yards were the third-most rushing yards in NCAA Bowl history. He entered the game with 1,732 yards on the ground and ended his season with 2,012 yards rushing to become the 13th player in NCAA history to amass more than 2,000 yards. The rushing total also set a Big East and school single-season record. The 52 points scored were the most in Rutgers' bowl history. Including both individual and team marks, RU set a total of nine bowl records at the International Bowl.

2008 PAPAJOHNS.COM BOWL

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Fitting that Rutgers would end the 2008 season with a come-from-behind win. After winning only one of their first six games, Mike Teel and the Scarlet Knights erased an 11-point second half deficit to defeat North Carolina State 29-23 in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. Leading the comeback -- as he did all season -- was Teel, who passed for 319 yards and two touchdowns, including a 42-yard scoring toss to Kenny Britt to give the Scarlet Knights (8-5) the lead for good in the fourth quarter. Teel's pass to Britt with 8:30 to play proved to be the winning touchdown. Britt, a third-team All-American, made a juggling catch as he crossed the goal line and finished with six catches for 119 yards. Teel, a senior, was the game's most valuable player. He ended his career on a seven-game winning streak after being booed at home when he was struggling earlier in the season. NC State (6-7) held a 17-6 halftime edge, led by quarterback Russell Wilson who was 11-for-23 for 186 yards and a score. But Wilson left the game with a strained knee late in the first half and did not return. The Scarlet Knights scored 10 consecutive points in the third quarter on a 31-yard field goal by San San Te and an 11-yard pass from Teel to Tiquan Underwood. Rutgers took a 19-17 lead with 13:31 to play on a 28-yard field by Te after a 10-play, 70-yard drive. The Wolfpack came right back as reserve quarterback Daniel Evans drove them 64 yards in eight plays and hit Anthony Hill with a 16-yard touchdown pass to give NC State a 23-19 lead. But it was only two plays later when Teel hit Britt for the go-ahead score.

2009 ST. PETERSBURG BOWL

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. – Rutgers (9-4) capped off its fifth-straight bowl appearance with its fourth-consecutive bowl victory, defeating Central Florida 45-24 in the 2009 St. Petersburg Bowl on Saturday, Dec. 19 at Tropicana Field. The Scarlet Knights showed a great display of balance in all three phases of the game, recording touchdowns on offensive, defensive and special teams. RU ended the night with two rushing touchdowns, two passing touchdowns, one interception and one kickoff returned for scores. Rutgers gained 380 yards of total offense behind a career passing day from freshman quarterback Tom Savage who completed 14-of-27 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns. Fellow true freshman Mohamed Sanu also enjoyed a career-best evening as he accounted for three of RU's five touchdowns. Sanu had 13 carries for 41 yards and a pair of touchdowns, in addition to catching four passes for 97 yards and a TD. For his performance Sanu was awarded the Most Outstanding Player trophy, joining past bowl honorees Ray Rice (2006 Texas Bowl, 2008 International Bowl) and Mike Teel (2008 PapaJohns.com Bowl).

2011 NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

BRONX, N.Y. – Chas Dodd hit Brandon Coleman for an 86-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter and Jawan Jamison ran for two scores to lead Rutgers over Iowa State 27-13 in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl on Dec. 30, 2011. The Scarlet Knights (9-4) ran their bowl winning streak to five and improved to 2-0 this season at Yankee Stadium, where they beat Army earlier in the season. Rutgers, which played in one bowl game before 2005, is 5-1 in the postseason since that season. The Cyclones (6-7) finished the season on a three-game losing streak, their last win coming on Nov. 18 in Ames, Iowa, when they pulled off the biggest upset of the season against Oklahoma State. In this game, Steele Jantz relieved Barnett in the second quarter and helped pull the Cyclones within 20-13 in the fourth on Jeff Woody's 20-yard touchdown run with 10:00 left. After an exchange of punts left Rutgers deep in its own end, Dodd went deep to Coleman. The 6-foot-6 redshirt freshman went over 5-7 cornerback Jeremy Reeves, then outran the corner to the end zone to make it 27-13 with 5:47 left. It was Coleman's only catch, but it turned out to be the play of the game. Jamison, another redshirt freshman giving Rutgers fans hope for more bowls to come, finished with 134 yards on 27 carries.

2012 RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

ORLANDO - Rutgers saw its 2012 season come to an end with a 13-10 overtime loss to Virginia Tech in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando on Dec. 28, 2012. The loss ended the Scarlet Knights' bowl win streak at five, which had previously been the longest active streak in the nation. In the 15th meeting between the two squads, Rutgers held a 10-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Scarlet Knights scored first on a ball that was snapped over Virginia Tech QB Logan Thomas and recovered in the end zone by Rutgers LB Khaseem Greene on the opening drive. An RU field goal by Nick Borgese late in the opening quarter would be the final points until the last stanza. In the fourth, the Hokies were able to tie it up. In the first overtime possession, the Hokies settled for a 22-yard field goal to take a 13-10 lead. Rutgers had a possession to answer, but after going three-and-out, Borgese missed wide-right on a 42-yard field goal attempt to end the game. Rutgers finished the year 9-4 and earned a share of the school's first Big East Championship.

2013 NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

BRONX, N.Y. – A 47-yard field goal by Kyle Federico brought Rutgers within three with less than nine minutes remaining, but 10 unanswered points by Notre Dame iced the contest, as the Irish defeated the Scarlet Knights, 29-16, in the 2013 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. It was the eighth bowl trip in nine seasons for Rutgers. A Pinstripe Bowl record crowd of 47,122 watched a back-and-forth affair for the majority of the contest, with neither team leading by more than one possession until late in the fourth quarter. Brandon Coleman led RU in receiving with two catches for 65 yards and a touchdown, while Paul James logged 48 yards on 10 rushing attempts. Coleman's touchdown late in the first quarter was the 20th of his career, tying him for the school record. Federico converted all three of his field goal attempts.

2014 QUICK LANE BOWL

DETROIT – In control from the outset, Rutgers thoroughly dominated North Carolina, 40-21, in the Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field, turning in one of its stronger performances of the year to finish the 2014 campaign at 8-5. Quarterback Gary Nova threw two touchdown passes, freshmen running backs Josh Hicks and Robert Martin proved to be a dynamic 1-2 punch in the running game, with each topping 100 yards rushing, and the Scarlet Knights' defense quieted the most productive offense in North Carolina history for all but the final 6:45 of the game. The Scarlet Knights jumped out to a 23-0 lead at halftime, sparked by a 34-yard touchdown pass from Nova to Andre Patton on the first drive of the game. Hicks and Martin both added rushing scores to pad the lead, with Kyle Federico connecting from 19 yards away with 11 seconds left in the second quarter. Nova, who finished 9-of-20 for 184 yards, pushed the Scarlet Knights' 23-0 halftime lead to 30-7 with his second touchdown pass - this one a 34-yard strike to Andrew Turzilli - with 7:33 left in the third quarter. The advantage grew to 37-7 on Martin's 28-yard touchdown run with 14:11 to play. Federico tacked on a 31-yard field goal with 10:04 remaining to make it 40-7. Martin and Hicks joined Ray Rice (three times) and Jawan Jamison as the only Rutgers backs to rush for 100 yards in a bowl game. Martin (19 carries for 100 yards and two touchdowns) and Hicks (202 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries) also joined Rice as the only true freshmen to reach 100 in a bowl for the Scarlet Knights. Hicks was named MVP of the game for his efforts. The rushing totals for both Martin and Hicks were career highs, with Rutgers' 340 rushing yards overall the most in program history in a bowl game and the highest total this season. Defensively, Lorenzo Waters totaled a game-high 14 tackles (10 solo), adding two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal. Darius Hamilton contributed two tackles for loss in the victory.

MEDIA POLICIES

RUTGERS ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

The Rutgers Athletic Communications Office is committed to assisting members of the media with their coverage of the Rutgers football team. Hasim Phillips serves as the primary contact for the football program with support from Jimmy Gill and Brad Derechailo.

The Athletic Communications Office is located on level one of the press box at HighPoint.com Stadium. For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the Athletic Communications Office at 732-445-7028, visit CollegePressBox.com or e-mail Hasim Phillips at hphillips@scarletknights.com.

To assist in your coverage throughout the year, please read the media information on this page. All interview requests must be directed to and arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day (24 hours) in advance. Coaches, players and support staff are prohibited from participating in any interviews without prior authorization from the Athletic Communications Office.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media credential requests must be submitted via email to credentials@scarletknights.com. Admittance to the HighPoint.com Stadium press box is limited to working media members only. Credential requests must be made formally to the credential email address.

Requests for game day credentials must be received at least two weeks in advance of the date of the contest to provide sufficient time for processing and mailing. Media credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at the West Gate Media Will Call (Media Entrance) beneath the press box at HighPoint.com Stadium.

Working space in the HighPoint.com Stadium Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for next-day publication covering Rutgers or the current game opponent; (2) sports editors of newspapers in New Jersey, New York and Eastern Pennsylvania; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) official school student daily newspaper; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers; (7) weekly press representatives; non-originating radio representatives of AM news stations; and Internet writers for sites affiliated with established, nationally-recognized media outlets will be considered on a game-by-game basis as space permits. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Sideline photographers and media members must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas.

PARKING

Media parking is located in the Green Lot, which is located adjacent to the Indoor Practice Bubble. To enter the Green Lot, take River Road to Sutphen Road. Once on Sutphen, make your first left at Fitch Road and attendants will direct you to the media lot. You should request your parking at the same time you request your game credential. If time permits, both will be mailed to you. There is no day-of-game media parking list and therefore members of the media must have a media parking pass in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete NCAA statistics, play-by-play and quote sheets from both teams are all regular services on gameday. Upon your arrival, you will receive information with a game program, flipcard, updated stats and game day notes.

The press box has wireless internet access. Login information will be provided on the day of game.

PHONES

A limited number of courtesy phones are available in the press box at HighPoint.com Stadium. The phones are all operator-assisted calls, or third-party billing calls can be made. Should you wish to have a phone line installed at HighPoint.com Stadium, contact Verizon at 1-800-564-9911 or 9922.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day (24 hours) in advance. Players are available in person following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, pending class schedules.

Please consult with Hasim Phillips regarding availability as it will vary from week to week. A time mutually convenient for the player and media member can be set up by the Athletic Communications Office. During a traditional game week, there will be no player interviews after Wednesday until following the game.

COACH ASH INTERVIEWS

All interview requests for Rutgers head coach Chris Ash must be arranged through Hasim Phillips. In addition to post-practice media availability, coach Ash will be available to the media every Monday morning at his weekly press conference in the team meeting room of the Hale Center and on the weekly Big Ten teleconference on Tuesday morning at 12:56 p.m.

POST PRACTICE INTERVIEWS

On Tuesday, select offensive coaches and players will be available to the media post practice, while select defensive coaches and players will be available on Wednesday. Head coach Chris Ash will address the media following practice on Thursday.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

Assistant coaches are available to the media following practice with the offensive staff conducting interviews on Tuesdays, while the defensive staff meets on Wednesdays. The offensive and defensive coordinators will be available at the weekly Monday press conference in the team meeting room of the Hale Center.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

The use of social media (Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat or Periscope) is strictly prohibited during practice sessions. Live reporting is NOT permitted during practice. Live video/audio broadcast of any kind is also NOT permitted. This includes the use of social media platforms such as Facebook Live, Instagram, Snapchat or Periscope. All reports must be filed at the conclusion of any open media practice windows.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Chris Ash and select players, following the designated cooling off period, will be made available for interviews after each game. Following home games, the press conference for coach Ash will take place in the team meeting room on the second floor of the Hale Center, which is located on the east side of the stadium opposite the press box.

With approximately five minutes remaining in the game, members of the media will be escorted across the field towards the Hale Center.

The visiting team's press conference will be held in the linebackers meeting room on the second floor of the Hale Center.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Live video/audio broadcast of any kind will not be permitted during the weekly press conference. This includes the use of live video features on social media platforms such as Facebook Live, Instagram, Snapchat, Twitter or Periscope.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Big Ten football. RUTGERS RADIO NETWORK

All Rutgers football games will be broadcast over the Rutgers IMG Sports Network to 50,000 watt WOR 710-AM in New York City and Central Jersey's WCTC 1450-AM.

Play-by-play announcer Chris Carlin is well known to sports radio fans throughout the State of Rutgers. Carlin is in his 18th year with the Rutgers Radio Network, including his 15th as the play-by-play voice of Rutgers football. Carlin, who has nearly 20 years of experience in radio and television, is the afternoon host on WFAN in New York City. He began his career as producer with Mike & The Mad Dog on WFAN and later hosted joined SNY hosting "Loud Mouths," "Geico Sportsnite," as well as New York Mets pregame and postgame shows.

Former Rutgers standout quarterback Ray Lucas begins his 10th season as the color analyst on the Rutgers Radio Network. The seven-year NFL veteran has also been an analyst for SNY on its New York Jets programming since 1996 and won a New York Emmy for best analyst in 2010 for his work on SNY.

Anthony "Foonch" Fucilli returns for his 15th season as the Rutgers Radio Network sideline reporter. Fucilli has also worked as a field producer and reporter for MSG Network since 1989.

Marc Malusis is back for his 10th year as the pre-game and post-game host on the Rutgers Radio Network. The pre-game shows starts one hour prior to kickoff while the post-game show stays on the air one hour following the game.

Former Rutgers defensive lineman Eric LeGrand begins his eighth season on the Rutgers Radio Network. LeGrand will provide insight and commentary on the pre-game show, halftime report and post-game.

THE YARD

ABOUT THE YARD

Located at the heart of the historic College Avenue Campus, The Yard is a residential, retail and outdoor space and is one of the most unique college-community spaces in America. Serving as a new "front porch" to the Rutgers campus, The Yard is the newest gathering space for students, faculty and members of the greater New Brunswick community. The Yard is an awesome living environment and an amazing destination for students and visitors alike.

VIDEO BOARD AND THE YARD

A 25,000 square foot public green space hosts countless events, an HD jumbo-tron that broadcasts Rutgers sporting and cultural events, movies, news, original content and live programming, from early morning to late in the evening throughout the year.

GREAT FOOD, PLENTY OF CHOICES

The Yard is also one of New Brunswick's newest dining destinations where you'll be able to grab some coffee from Starbucks and a treat from Scarlet Sweets. Healthy grub will be found at honeygrow, but you'll still be able to get your Fat Sandwich at RU Hungry. At Your Doorstep Convenience has got you covered for those last minute necessities or on-the-go snacks before class. And Krispy Pizza, Jersey Mikes and Surf Taco round out the long list of great food options for hungry visitors.

THE BEST IN ON-CAMPUS LIVING

On the corner of College Avenue and Hamilton Street, the 14-story, U-shaped university apartment building features 135 single-bedroom apartments for 442 students. There are a number of common areas - including a sky lounge on the top floor with views of the New York City skyline - Wi-Fi, great retailers, and it's very own boardwalk.

JUST STEPS FROM THE BUSIEST STUDENT BUS STOP AT RU

With a bus stop used by more than 8,000 students daily, The Yard is the new crossroads of the Rutgers-New Brunswick campus, and welcoming to students, alumni and our neighbors across the area.

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS FOOTBALL CONTACTS

HASIM PHILLIPS Associate Athletic Director, Communications

Office: 732-445-6069 • Cell: 732-470-9457 • E-mail: hphillips@scarletknights.com • Twitter: @HasimPhillips

Over the past decade, Hasim Phillips has worked as a media relations professional in the nation's No. 1 media market (New York) with roles both in college athletics and corporate communications. Phillips serves as the primary spokesman for Rutgers football, handling all media inquiries for the program's coaches and players. Additionally, he is the executive producer for the "RFootball Show," a 12-episode television series with distribution throughout the East Coast from New York to areas in Maryland. The program won a Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award in 2017. Phillips also oversees all football related content on the school's official athletics website (ScarletKnights.com). For Phillips, this is the second stint with Rutgers Athletics, having previously served with the department from 2004-2012. Phillips began his career in athletic communications at Rutgers in 2004, serving as an assistant until 2007 before becoming an Assistant Director for Athletic Communications from 2007-11. During this time, he spent four seasons assisting the lead football contact with a variety of tasks, including practice and game day media coverage as well as game notes and media guide production. While at Rutgers, he was a member of an athletic communications staff that was twice (2009, 2010) recognized by the Football Writers Association of America as a "Super 11" communications department, awarded to the top PR offices in the country. In 2011, he was elevated to the role of Associate Director of Athletic Communications, serving as the primary media contact for Hall of Fame head coach C. Vivian Stringer and the women's basketball team. Phillips joined The Madison Square Garden Company in 2012 as Manager for Corporate Communications. He assisted in the publicity efforts of the MSG Sports brand, helping promote marketing partnerships and new business initiatives. He also worked to promote the New York Knicks' community service initiative "Basketball in the Boroughs," securing targeted media opportunities to highlight the franchise's work in the community. Phillips also oversaw inquiries regarding the use of MSG trademarks or logos in television or film projects. He was responsible for script review and concept approval in addition to working with production crews while filming on site at Madison Square Garden. He served as a liaison between MSG, the corporate offices of the National Basketball Association (NBA) and National Hockey League (NHL), and several major motion picture and television studios. Phillips, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., is a 2004 graduate of Rutgers University.

JIMMY GILL Associate Director of Communications (Secondary Contact)

Office: 732-445-8103 • Cell: 732-991-9486 • E-mail: jgill@scarletknights.com • Twitter: @jgill027

Jimmy Gill is in his sixth year with the football program and seventh overall at Rutgers. He works as the secondary contact for football, handling game notes, statistics, press releases and the game day program among other duties. Gill is also the primary contact for the baseball and gymnastics programs. Gill was promoted to Associate Director of Athletic Communications in June 2014 and was part of the 2014 staff that was honored by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) as a recipient of the Super 11 Award. Prior to coming back to RU, Gill worked at the University of Miami (Fla.) as the volleyball and third football contact in the fall of 2012. The volleyball team successfully earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and Gill was named CoSIDA Division I Volleyball East Region Sports Information Director Honoree for his efforts along the way. After the football season, he worked as a media relations assistant for the Orange Bowl committee for its annual game and the BCS National Championship. During the 2011-2012 academic year, Gill served as Athletic Communications Assistant at Rutgers as the contact for baseball, volleyball, women's tennis and gymnastics. A native of Lewes, Del., he earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Swarthmore (Pa.) College in 2010, before receiving his master's degree in sport administration from the University of Miami (Fla.) in 2011. While working towards his master's degree, Gill worked as a graduate assistant in the UM communications office, helping with all aspects of the office while functioning as the primary women's golf contact. He got his start in the business in the Swarthmore sports information department as a student worker with a primary focus on statistics for various sports. Gill was a four-year starter for the Garnet baseball team, earning all-conference honors and captaining the program's first-ever playoff appearance as a senior in 2010. An outfielder, he is still in the top-10 in program history in games played, doubles, RBIs and single-season home runs.
